Introduction

MANTRA (76) AUM SHREE VAISHNAVAKRATU-KARAKAY NAMAH

The Promoter of Yagnas of non-violence

Shatanand Swami is paying his respectful obeisance to Shree Hari, saying, “Dear Prabhu You are the Establisher of Vishnuyags (satvik yagnas performed in order to please Bhagwan). You particularly have a high regard for Vishnuyags. You have put a halt to yagnas where animals were sacrificed and You established Vishnuyags. You influence others to recite the Vishnugayatri mantra. You influence others to recite the Vishnusahastra Nam.” Bhagwan Swaminarayan had a thought in mind that, ‘In this present time, many Rajsuy yagnas (Rajsik yagnas) are been performed. Until I do not establish Satvik yagnas, the Rajsuy yagnas will not come to an end. I shall establish Satvik yagnas.

Rajsuy yagnas are not liked by Prabhu. He has a strong liking for Vaishnav Yagnas (ceremonial sacrifices of spiritual knowlegde). A yagna is a worship performed to Purshotam Narayan Himself. The fire represents Bhagwan’s mouth. Contributing sacrificial offerings to SuryaNarayan blazes our sins committed physically, orally and mentally. Pure offerings reach Bhagwan. One should perform Vishnuyags but not yagnas that are Rajsik and Tamsik.

YOU SHOULD ALL CONTINUE YOG YAGNA

Bhagwan Shree Krushna has carried out many leelas. He adored His dear devotees very much. He destroyed the burden off Mother Earth. However, He did not get the time to perform yagnas. The period exceeded in destroying demons. Bhagwan Ramchandralaji did perform Rajsuy yagnas but only a small amount. Bhagwan Swaminarayan established Vishnuyags and nourished civilisation. He would perform Vishnuyags in Jetalpur. Then again, two years later, He would perform yagnas in Dabhan, Ahmedabad, Vadtal, Gadhda and Sarangpur. From village to village, he began the performances of yagnas. Vishnuyag is also known as Yog yagna. Association of Saints, sacred Scriptures and holy discourses, Deities and Acharyas is called Yog yagna. In the Vachanamrut, Shreeji Maharaj has said, “You should all continue Yog yagna.” To merge the mind and the senses upon Bhagwan’s divine form is called Yog.

Without Yog yagna, liberation cannot be attained. To unite with Saints, to read sacred Scriptures, to listen to holy discourses and to sing Kirtans is called Yog yagna. Bhagwan Swaminarayan put a halt to Rajsik and Tamsik yagnas and established the beginning of Satvik yagnas. Through Rajsik and Tamsik mantras, sacrifice should not be made in the sacrificial pit.

Offerings in the sacrificial fire should be made in the house of courteous householders; however, offerings of the Janmangal mantras, Sarvamangal Stotras, recitation of Narayan Kavacha, the recitation of Hanumanji’s mantras, recitation of the Bhagvat Gita, or recitation of Vishnusahastra Nam should be made. Other than this, evil mantras should not be recited. If recited, peace does not pervade in the house and sorrow and deprivation increases. Quarrels increase and disunity amongst families and relatives arise.

If one desires to make offerings, then offer the mantras of Satvik Deities. We all are followers of Purshotam Narayan; hence, we should not add mixture in our firm faith. If we walk along the path directed by Prabhu, only then, one undergoes delight. There was a man who would arrive to listen to a holy discourse. In this city, there was a thief. He would rob everyday but was unable to be identified and arrested. One time, the thief disguised himself in a pair of saffron clothes and took a seat next to the ascetic. By overhearing the holy discourse, his conscience began to alter. He began to find out about his faults and sins. ‘I have been terrorising others, beating them and gathering all this wealth. When the time of the punishment of these committed sins arrives, I will have to go through much difficulty.’

With the supremacy of Satsang, the thief’s mentality changed fundamentally. Hence, he would be present in the holy discourses daily and consume the offerings of the yagna. The King would bow down to the ascetic’s feet but today, he bowed down to the feet of three ascetics and presented them with offerings. At that time, the thief wearing saffron clothes, said, “Oh King! Do not gift me with anything. I am not an ascetic. You are offering me with a gift thinking that I am a Saint. Thus, take it back.”

“I AM A THIEF OF YOUR CITY.”

The King asked, “You are doing such in order to conceal your power. You have no desire for wealth. Hence, is this the reason why you are refusing? Other than this, you are an ascetic.” The thief answered, “I am not an ascetic. I am a thief of your city.” The King said, “If you are robbing anyway and you want money, then why are you not accepting although I am giving to you?”

“I am no longer a thief. Through Satsang, I have collected the knowledge of the truth. Thus, what should I do with such counterfeit items?”

Within forty-eight minutes of associating in Satsang, the thief became a saint. He engaged his mind in Bhagwan after forsaking the act of stealing. This is the greatness of Satsang. In order to show the correct path of emancipation, Shree Hari has carried out the acts of yagnas.

MANTRA (77) AUM SHREE PANCHAYA-TAN-SANMANAY NAMAH

One who holds in great reverence (‘sanman’) the five (‘panch’) Deities, i.e. Vishnu, Shivi, Ganpatiji, Mother Parvati and SuryaNarayan Shatanand Swami is paying his respectful obeisance to Shree Hari. “You respectfully welcome the five Deities. You have held in great reverence the five Deities.”

Vishnu, Shivi, Ganpatiji, Mother Parvati and SuryaNarayan are traditionally worshiped. Bhagwan Swaminarayan has integrated the entire Hindu religion into one stanza. This matter is believed in the entire axiomatic religion- Sanatan Dharma. ‘Whilst travelling on the roads, if a Temple of a Deity appears, one should respectfully bow down.’ These five Deities have been formed from Purshotam Narayan. The entire world has been formed from Prabhu’s divine form.
THE FIVE DEITIES ARE THE PILARS OF THE AXIOMATIC RELIGION.

_Bhagwan Swaminarayan_ has performed worship to the five Deities. He has directed His devotees to hold them in great reverence. However, he has not directed about having firm faith on them. One should, beyond doubt bear one point in mind. The five Deities are certainly worth worshipping but firm faith should be upon Narayan. In the _Bhagvat Gita_, _Bhagwan_ has stated:

antvatu falam tesham, tad bhavatyalpa meghasaam l devandevayjo yaanti, mad bhaktaa yaanti maamapi ll

_Bhagwan_ is saying, “Oh Arjun! One who devotes upon Deities, attain the Deities and one who devotes upon Me and has firm faith upon Me, attains Me.” Worship should indeed be carried out to these five Deities. Worship of many could be carried out. Worship to the Deities could be carried out. Worship to the Saints and Acharyas could be carried out. Worship to holy cows could be carried out. Worship to Hanumanji and Ganpatiji could be carried out. Worship to Mother Earth could be carried out. Worship to Garudji (the carrier of Vishnu Bhagwan) and Varunji (the presiding Deity of water) could be carried out. Worship to sacred Scriptures could be carried out but firm faith should be upon One and Only Bhagwan. There is a contrast between worship and firm faith.

In the _Vachanamrut_, Shreeji Maharaj is stating that, ‘Just as Mansi Puja of Bhagwan is carried out, Mansi Puja of Saints can be done. Just as five rupees is utilised for Bhagwan, one should, similarly utilise five rupees for Saints.’ There is no prohibition of performing worship but this point needs understanding. If understood clearly, no doubts arise in the mind and if not correctly understood, one becomes muddled.

Therefore, the _Veds_ have established pure firm faith. That pure firm faith, _Bhagwan Swaminarayan_ has established. The _Veds_ state that, ‘There is no other aim other than One and Only Narayan. There is no firm faith upon any other than Narayan.’ Vyasa Bhagwan has elucidated the essences of all the sacred Scriptures.

asalokya sarva shastraani, vichaarya cha punah punah l gneyo dhyeyo praapya, poojya ek Narayanh ll

Vyas Bhagwan has stated that, ‘One should have firm faith on only Narayan.’ Meditation should not be carried upon any other than Narayan. Firm faith should not be made of any other. Worship should certainly be carried out to them. The greatness of Vishnu is not understood clearly by anyone except for Shivji. Shivji and Narayan have the same identity. Both Vishnu and Shivji carry out the work for this creation. Vishnu is the Nurturer and Shivji is the Destroyer.

_Bhagwan Swaminarayan_ is saying, “In My work, these five Deities assist Me. I pay reverence to these five Deities. You also perform worship to them but you should have firm faith upon One and Only Narayan.”

This mantra is giving us clear awareness. Do not insult anyone. Pay reverence to everyone. Learn to respect everyone. Parents are also equal to Deities. Gurus are also equal to Deities. Respect them but do not disrespect them. In this modern day and age, elderly parents are less admired by the young generation. Youngsters do not like them speaking. When elderly parents speak of their sorrow, the young generation would harshly blow the conversation away. Insult to parents and Gurus leads to the equivalent amount of sins committed when insulting Prabhu.

Mother Durga is a Satvik Goddess. Shree Hari prohibited the act where liquor and meat would be offered before Goddess Durga. Bhagwan Swaminarayan abolished such inappropriate-ness. One should not even consume such offerings. The Goddess never consumes such revolting offerings as She is a Satvik Goddess. You should perform worship to these five Deities. They are all devoting upon Bhagwan. They have firm faith upon Narayan.

_Bhagwan_ is saying that, ‘All these Deities are assisting me in the formation of My creation.
Hence, I am respectfully saluting to Them.’ Salute to all but refuge upon One. Prabhu salutes all five Deities. Thus, ‘Panchaya-tan-sanmanay’ is Prabhu’s divine name.

MANTRA (78)

AUM SHREE NAISHTHIK-VRAT-POSHAKAY NAMAH

The Nurturer (‘poshak’) of the vow (‘vrat’) of sincere celibacy (‘naishthik’)

Shatanand Swami is paying respectful obeisances to Shree Hari saying, “Dear Prabhu! You are the Nurturer of the vow of sincere celibacy. You are One who authenticates the sincere vow.” Many supposedly believe that in this age of Kaliyug, the vow of celibacy is unattainable and that it is impossible. This point is worth understanding.

For those who do not have shelter under a Guru, who have not surrendered unto Shree Hari’s lotus feet then this vow is prohibited for them. Other than that, those who have been showered with grace from their Guru, those who have firm faith upon Purshotam Narayan can certainly, without any doubt, observe the vow of celibacy. If one supposes that the vow of celibacy will be able to be observed with his own endeavor, then it is probable that perhaps this vow can actually be broken. However, one who has firm and stable faith upon Bhagwan, one in whose heart Bhagwan is residing, such staunch devotee is able to simply observe the vow of celibacy for his entire lifetime. For one whose faculty is playing around with Narayan, this vow is straightforward for him, but for one whose eyes, speech and heart are disturbed with illusion, this vow is complex for him.

‘Brahm’ means Bhagwan. ‘Chari’ means one who walks upon the pathway towards Bhagwan and who eternally contemplates upon Bhagwan. Such person is called a Bramhchari. ‘Naishthik’ means faith upon One and Only Bhagwan. Bhagwan certainly gifts the power of observing the vow of celibacy to those who have fully surrendered upon Him. For this focal reason, young Sankhyogi Bais and young Saints are competent of living life observing the vow of celibacy and contemplating upon the divine form of Shree Hari in this deadly poisonous age of Kaliyug. This is Swaminarayan Bhagwan’s glory otherwise this cannot be achieved. Even the elderly ones at the age of sixty-eighty are helpless in discarding illusion.

THE ELDERLY ONES ARE HELPLESS IN DISCARDING ILLUSION.

Youngsters at the age of twenty have struck out illusion and are engrossingly performing devotion to Bhagwan. This evidently proves that Bhagwan Swaminarayan is certainly present in this Satsang! If Bhagwan is not present in this Satsang the five senses and illusion would allure them. They would abandon Bhagwan but would not abandon illusion. They are blowing illusion away like a dry blade of grass. Such devotees were present in the past and also exist in this present day.

Rajbai’s mother and father explained, “Oh Raju, you have now reached a suitable age. Now, we should search for a fine family and get you married.” Rajbai responded, “Oh mother! Do not be concerned about me at all. I have already found my Companion.” “With who?” Rajbai answered, “With my Bhagwan. I have married Him and surrendered unto Him.”

varyaa me to vanamaali re, shirne saate… tanadaani asha tyagi, lagani e saathe laagi; mohi hu to bhudhar bhaadi re… shirne saate… sansaarnaa sukh evaa, zaanzvana paani jeva; tuch jaani asha taadi re… shirne saate…

Rajbai said, “This worldly happiness is similar to dew drops of water.” The dew drops of water can be perceived but cannot be held in the hands. It is merely an illusive sight. One cannot bathe with it, neither can one drink it. this worldly happiness is merely an illusive sight. Pleasure can be perceived, but in the end, it truly does not last for long. It is destructible.

parni pritam pyaaro, akhand sohaag maaro; randapaani beek taadi re… shirne saate…

Rajbai said, “I have eternally married my Companion.” At that time, Rajbai’s mother stroked her hands on Rajbai’s head and said, “My dear daughter, the path of renunciation is extremely intricate. It is not as simple as chewing roasted grains of gram. It is a path as complicated as chewing onto iron ladus. It is a path as difficult as walking on the sharp edge of a sword.”

At that moment, Rajbai gave a beautiful answer. “Oh Mother. The sharp edge of a sword is like a bed of flowers for me. Hence, be pleased with me and leave the talks about marriage. Please, give me consent for going to the village of Gadhpur so I can engage in the devotion to Bhagwan.” Mother answered, “My dear daughter, Raju! Just for you, we are running about a lot.” Rajbai spoke, “Mother, why are you all running towards the wrong direction? If you all crave for my eternal bliss, then please, let me marry my Shree Hari.”

“Why are you entrapping me in this illusion?” Thereafter, her mother and father vigorously got her married. The marriage party arrived. Wedded, she sat in the vehicle heading towards her in-laws home. Hey mortal body is in the vehicle but her mind is engrossed in Bhagwan. She is praying, “Oh Prabhu! Protect my reputation. There is a tiny gap of a few seconds leading to a dreadful condition for me. I am becoming ensnared further and further.” She was weeping and weeping. ‘What will become of me now?’ She was persistently committing her mentality unto Bhagwan.

Night fell and as her mortal husband entered in the bedroom, a horrifying lion was lying on the bed. Bhagwan had come to the rescue. Her husband gave out a loud cry and sprinted out. All the relatives in the house gathered together. “Why are you yelling?” “Oh my! Look! A lion is roaring in the house. It is staring and gazing at me.” The mother and father looked in the house but witnessed nothing. “You fool! How can there be a lion in the house?! A lion’s habitat is within a jungle.” “Father, you may not be able to perceive this fearful scene but I certainly can perceive it. If you want to see me alive then send this woman to her paternal home.” In that instant, unique brightness pervaded from Rajbai’s body. The house pervaded with intense illumination. Rajbai’s mother-in-law asked, “Raju, what is all this?”

Rajbai answered beautifully, “Mother, my marriage has become mixed up. My parents have got me married by force. I do not desire to dwell here. Please send me to Gadhpur happily.” Thereafter, they dropped Rajbai off to Gadhpur with delight. Rajbai became glad and joyful. She humbly surrendered upon Bhagwan lotus feet and began to shed tears of joy. “Oh Prabhu! You arrived at the right time. Good! Now I shall forever stay within Your service.” Bhagwan Swaminarayan is the Nurturer of the vow of celibacy.

AUM SHREE PRAGALBHAY NAMAH

One who awe-inspires ('pragalbh') the assembly full of great scholars

Shatanand Swami is paying respectful obeisance’s to Shree Hari, saying, “Oh Prabhu! You are Pragalbh.” ‘Pragalbh’ means awe-inspiring and highly intelligent. Prabhu is One who speaks through experience. One who speaks after being liberated from illusion is called awe-inspiring and highly intelligent. Those who are liberated from illusion are known to be awe-inspiring.

Many people are highly intellectual. They read and listen to the narrations which Saints and sacred Scriptures have stated. However, they are unable to recall them. They are unable to absorb the narrations in their memory. It goes through as though the divine talks are been sifted in a sieve. The individual does have the brainpower. He also has the understanding but his intelligence does not last for long. It becomes forgotten. Such person is not known to be highly intelligent!

A person becomes highly intelligent when new innovative fondness linking to Bhagwan arises from his heart. Prabhu speaks from experience. Many scholars and learned men exist in this universe. They do not all speak through experience. Their homes and hearts are more or less full of vanity and darkness. They wander around in intense pride. Ones who educate thousands of Saints and renunciates while their darkness and vanity do not withdraw from them are not intelligent and are also not known as highly intellectual. They do indeed have intelligence but they do not have the knowledge of how to make apt use of it. They are drowning in their ego. Those individuals who utter words while entangled in illusion are insects of illusion.

Do not talk dry.

_Bhagwan_ speaks through experience. _Bhagwan_ showers glory in assemblies full of highly intelligent scholars. _Bhagwan_ is stating, “I can perceive everything. I can perceive the divine Abode and I can also perceive the Master of the divine Abode.”

_Shreeji Maharaj_ is advising the Saints, “Oh Saints! You should travel to various regions, foreign countries, village to village for the broadening of _Satsang_; however preach with an intelligent mind. Preach through experience. You should become engrossed in _Satsang_ and engross others in this divine _Satsang_. Do not talk dry.”

What is the precise meaning of dry talk? ‘One should single-mindedly listen to holy discourses.’ One preaches in such way but he himself gazes around in all directions and has a bad habit of talking. The preaching which has an implied meaning but no literal meaning is called dry preaching. On top of this, what kind of preaching does the hypocrite offer? ‘One should observe fast on the days of _Ekadashi_. If one does not do this, he is a sinner. He is a fallen soul in hell although he is alive.’ This person does not himself consume fruits and foolishly eats pulses, rice, chapattis and grains; hence his preaches are not preached through experience. He is known to be dry. _Bhagwan_ does not possess this inferiority. As a matter of fact, _Bhagwan_ is highly intelligent. He performs it Himself, experiences it and subsequently influences other to perform the same.

_Bhagwan_ sermonises the matters that He Himself has performed in His living. _Shreeji Maharaj_ has many a times stated in the Sacred _Vachanamrut_ that, ‘I am talking through My Own experiences.’ All the issues that _Bhagwan_ has stated in the _Bhagvat Gita_ have been said after being awe-inspired. Through the experienced foundation, whatever He has accomplished, He has Himself spoken. He says one thing and does another is not _Bhagwan’s_ trait. Thus, His divine name is ‘Pragalbh’.

MANTRA (80) _Aum Shree Nispruhay Namah_

_One who has no desires for any objects_

_Shatanand Swami_ is paying respectful obeisances to _Shree Hari_. “Dear _Prabhu_! You are free from desires.” _Bhagwan_ has no desires for being worshiped. He has no desires for fame and reputation. He has no desires for being superior. He has no desires for obtaining a Kingdom or wealth. He has no sort of intense desires.

_Shatanand Swami_ is saying, “No matter how many gifts are presented to You, yet You gift them to others.” There is no end of the desires of humanity. Whatever they achieve, it is not enough. They possess desires of being worshiped, desires of fame and reputation, desires for being superior. This entire world is running after fame, reputation and superiority. They are causing the flow of a river of blood merely because of their craving for achieving a high status as a King. They would carry out many foolish lunatic acts. They feel no apprehension for their sinful acts.

The soul entity is an expander of desires. If one attains a million, one yearns for two million. If one attains a single bungalow, one craves for yet another bungalow. If one has no sons, one pines for a son. If one has sons, one yearns for grand-children. If one possesses a scooter, one craves for a car. The closing stage for such desires does not approach. Hence, he continues twirling around in the cycle of birth and death. Thus, one should live in this illusive world with open eyes and full alertness.

Mother! What should I do with a Kingdom?

_Prabhu Swaminarayan_ is free from desires. He has no form of cravings. _Prabhu_ arrived in the city of Dharmapur. An elderly Queen at the age of eighty by the name of Kushal Kuvarba was ruling the Royal Kingdom. She greeted Bhagwan and welcomed Him. The Queen performed worship to Him and said, “Oh Maharaj! From this day, I am handing over this Kingdom in Your ownership. You rule this Royal Kingdom. You take care of the five hundred villages. This is my one and only beloved son. I am giving him to You. He shall forever be present in Your service and shall reside with You. Please dwell within Dharmapur permanently.”

Prabhu gave a beautiful response, “Dear mother! I have certainly not come to rule a kingdom. What shall I do with a kingdom? I am the Master of innumerable millions of universes. Avoiding all that, I have arrived in order to fulfil the wishes of single-minded devotees like you. A kingdom is in fact binding. There is no bliss in a kingdom. Moreover, if there was true joy in a kingdom, for what purpose would great emperors abandon their kingdoms and head in the direction of the forest to carry out severe penance? In reality, I close my eyes and meditate. There is eternal harmony within this practice. Such harmony is not even achievable in the kingdom of the fourteen regions.” This mantra is worth understanding! Do not increase your worldly desires. Be content with the achieved state you are in and engage in the devotion to Shree Hari. Do not raise your cravings. To forsake the achieved entities is called true renunciation.

When Muktanand Swami went to Vadodra to express the meanings of the holy Scriptures, he put the learned scholars into thought. He clarified the implication of the Scriptures in such a way that everyone became followers of Swaminarayan Bhagwan. King Sayajirao also became so pleased that he performed worship to Muktanand Swami. He washed Swami’s feet with pure milk, touched the pure milk to his eyes and placed them on his head. Thereafter, he applied sandalwood paste on Swami’s forehead, decorated him with a flower garland around his neck. Furthermore, he offered a big golden plate full of garments, diamonds, pearls and golden garlands in Swami’s feet. Another plate he presented full of fruits and Indian sweets.

Swami addressed gently, “Oh King! What should I do with these heavy entities? I am a renunciate. These objects are rubbish to me. Please do take them back. As an alternative, gift them to the needy or Brahmans.” Being presented with objects worth millions of rupees, he would yet not accept them. He had no desires. If His (Shree Hari’s) Saints are free from desires, what to talk about Him, their Master and His desire-free mind?

Upon hearing such words of wisdom, the King entered a state of deep thought. ‘Other ascetics belonging in opinionated sects would have intense longing for objects and this Saint has no yearnings?’ He became conscious of the virtues of Saints that the association of a Saint possessing the qualities of Saints is not obtained again and again. The King lovingly bowed down to Muktanand Swami’s feet.

Within this universe, mankind would have thousands and thousands of desires. Their entire life is put to waste by running to fulfil these desires, yet their wishes are not accomplished and in the end, passions for worldly happiness are still left. Hence, he is incapable of climbing the pathway to final liberation. Bhagwan is free from desires. He has no addiction in anything. He is guiding us to additionally live an obsession-free life. To devote to the world is called a ghastly addiction and to devote upon Bhagwan is called devotion.

_AUM SHREE SATYA-PRATIGNAHH NAMAH_

The true (‘satya’) Observer of His taken vows (‘pratigna’) undertake. You do as according to Your sayings whereas an ordinary human would say one thing and do another.”

The humankind make big speeches in the presence of others that, “One should serve his parents. One must lift away the burden from them, otherwise debt builds up. One must certainly perform worship. One must wake up early in the morning.” He speaks such but does not practice his talks himself. He is not yet prepared to look at his parents face. Would such person serve? He would seize all the possessions and wealth but would not stay in his parent’s service. He would talk about doing Darshan, yet he does not even have in mind how many steps there are in the Temple. He would bathe and instantly direct himself in the kitchen to eat. He is a tough speaker and a coward performer.

_Bhagwan_ does not possess such hideous traits. He would do precisely what He says. Hence _Prabhu_ is honest in His promises. Shatrupa and Manuraja carried out penance. _Bhagwan_ became pleased, “Oh King! Ask for a boon. What should I gift you with?”

“Oh _Prabhu_! Gift me with a son alike to You.”

“Let it be so. I shall Myself descend on earth as Your son.”

In their next birth, Shatrupa was born as Kaushalya and Manuraja was born as King Dashrath. There, _Ram Bhagwan_ descended as their Beloved Son. HE FULFILS WHATEVER HE UTTERS.

_Bhagwan_ is not like those mortal humans within this mundane world. We say, ‘We shall visit you some time’ but then would not show our face. If one has self-interest, he would go to visit the person, otherwise he cannot be trusted. _Bhagwan_ is honest in His promises. He would accomplish as He promises but would not change His mind.

If _Prabhu_ tells His devotees that He will arrive on a particular day to collect them, He would surely arrive on that precise day. He would, without any doubt, fulfil His aim. He has sincerely carried out the promises that He has promised.

_Bhagwan Ram_ pledged a vow that, “When the amount of fourteen years pass by, I shall return from the forest.” Hence, fourteen years went by and He approached the village of Ayodhya at the fixed period of time. He did not dwell within the forest for an additional one day. This is because he is honestly truthful in His words.

_Bhagwan_ is not like those mortal humans within this mundane world. We say, ‘We shall visit you some time’ but then would not show our face. If one has self-interest, he would go to visit the person, otherwise he cannot be trusted. _Bhagwan_ is honest in His promises. He would accomplish as He promises but would not change His mind.

If _Prabhu_ tells His devotees that He will arrive on a particular day to collect them, He would surely arrive on that precise day. He would, without any doubt, fulfil His aim. He has sincerely carried out the promises that He has promised.

_Bhagwan Ram_ pledged a vow that, “When the amount of fourteen years pass by, I shall return from the forest.” Hence, fourteen years went by and He approached the village of Ayodhya at the fixed period of time. He did not dwell within the forest for an additional one day. This is because he is honestly truthful in His words.

One who gives affection (‘vatsal’) to His dear devotees (‘Bhakt’)

Shatanand Swami is paying respectful obeisances to Shree Hari. “Oh Prabhu! You are especially passionate towards Your dear devotees. Your devotees are very dear to You.” A calf is dear to a cow. From this, the word ‘Vatsalya’ has been formed. ‘Vats’ means a calf. The compassion, affection and adore towards the calf is called ‘Vatsalya’. Shatanand Swami is not demonstrating here the affection between a mother and a son.

A mother has self-interest upon her dearly loved son. ‘He will mature and will serve me well.’ A cow has no self-interest. When a cow approaches her new born calf, how much fondness does she express! ‘When my calf matures, it will serve me well’… She would have no such self-interest. Yet the cow has extraordinary affinity on her calf. From this, the word ‘Vatsalya’ has been created.

Bhagwan expresses affection upon His devotees. What type of affection? Just as a cow adores her calf, Bhagwan showers ‘Vatsalya’ affection. He has no self-interest of His devotees. He craves for nothing. Bhagwan’s devotees are very dear to Him. Hence, that devotee is ‘Vatsalya’.

Prabhu merged Meerabai into His Own divine Form.

If a devotee does not dismiss Bhagwan from his mind, Bhagwan does not dismiss the devotee from His mind either. A child cannot survive without his/her mother. Likewise, a mother cannot survive without her darling child. A devotee forever keeps Bhagwan in his mind. He would recall Bhagwan in every activity he carries out. If his faculty does not engage in Bhagwan, the devotee would sometimes shed tears of sorrow. On the full moon day of the month of Aaso (Sharad Purnima) at night, Bhagwan played Raas with the Gopees in Vrundavan and then immediately disappeared. He could not be perceived. Hence, the Gopees were frantically crying. They would ask the trees of the forest, “Have you seen my Keshav?” Meerabai, from the region of Mevaad, mourned as Prabhu was not in her company. At that time, Prabhu, like a mother, carried her and merged her into His Own divine Form. Along with her body, Meerabai had united into Dvarika-dhish.

When Bhagwan Swaminarayan was preparing to head for the direction of Gujarat, female devotees such as Ladubaa and Jivubaa began to shed tears. Jivubaa said:-

prabhu dur deshaavar jaasho,tyana bhakto tana vash thaasho l
jashe sukheti divso tamara,jashe shi rite divas amaaraa ll

Jivubaa is questioning Shree Hari, “How will our days pass without You?” Saying these words, all the female devotees began to cry. Giving them courage, Shreeji Maharaj said, “My dear sisters! Have courage. I am not going away from you. I am installing My Form within your heart and going. I am not fond of parting from you and leaving. Your affection is preventing Me. Yet, I have to liberate many souls. Hence I have no alternate choice but to leave.

My incarnation is for the liberation of innumerable souls. If I settle in only one place, how will the desires of others be fulfilled? Please, do not cry. I shall return to Gadhpur promptly. Give me consent with affection.”

If any person intimidates a calf, terrorises it, the cow would let out a cry. It would bellow with force. It would become heated and run to harm the person. If any person intimidates a devotee, Bhagwan runs ever so rapidly. Prahlad’s father threatened Prahlad, thus Bhagwan ran with rage. He ripped Hiranyakashipu into pieces and rescued His devotee.

Ladudanji’s mother said, “Who will fondle with My Laadu like a mother?” Shreeji Maharaj announced in a full assembly, “Lalba Devi! From today, I am Ladudanji’s Mother. Do not be concerned even a bit. All his fondling and caressing, I shall give.” Ladudanji, at that time, sang a kirtan:-

bhari sabhama bhudharji, tane thaya cho maadi maari re, betaane hete bolaavo, avganiyaa visaari re...
This mantra is divine. A young baby will be sleeping in a cradle and the baby’s mother will be doing some housework, but the mother’s mind will focally be on her beloved child. If a mother sets off to buy vegetables, she would be ceaselessly concerned about her baby. ‘What might my child be doing right now?’

‘Is it awake, or is it crying?’ She would hastily run home and look at her child. Then finally she thinks, ‘Phew…he/she is sleeping in tranquility!’ In a mother’s mind, there is concern for her baby. In this precise manner, Bhagwan is ceaselessly worried about His beloved devotees. ‘What might my devotees be doing right now?’ Bhagwan gives infinity more love and affection to His own devotees more than a mother who gives warmth and care for her child.

“I AM A MEMBER OF STAFF WITHIN A GOVERNMENT... DO NOT PANIC.”

A single-minded devotee, by the name of Nandubhai, in the village of Umreth would eternally keep Bhagwan in his mentality. One time, for necessary work, he traveled to the village of Godhra. He returned back thinking, ‘I shall reach home in a moment.’ It happened to be that he had forgotten the path. The horse galloped upon a diverse pathway. It is a dark atmosphere at night. All of a sudden, a ditch appeared. The horse came to a halt. Nandu Bhakt climbed off the horse. He viewed in all directions but was unable to identify a pathway. A thick dense forest. He had become perplexed.

He had no other individual in his company. Furthermore, it was a gloomy hour of darkness. It immediately appeared in his mind that at an instant of difficulty, one should remember Shree Hari. With an affectionate heart, he called out for Shree Hari.

In the gloomy time of night, a bright light of a candle was caught in his sight. Assuming that there must be a person there, he approached that route. There he saw Shree Hari disguised as a member of staff of the government. Nandubhai questioned Bhagwan, “Who may You be at this time of night?” “I am a Member of staff within a government. Do not panic.” Saying such, He offered the horse some grass and presented Nandubhai with Sukhdi (an article of Indian food) to eat. “Oh Bhagat! Eat in peace.” Then He offered water. He took out a divan. “Bhagat! You must be exhausted. Rest upon this divan.” Nandubhai rested. Bhagwan, disguised as a staff of the government was massaging Nandubhai’s feet. Bhagat fell deeply asleep. It was now five o’clock in the morning. It was slightly daylight and Bhagwan said, “Bhagat! Wake up. Head this way. You see the pathway in this direction? Go towards that direction. Do not panic.” Saying this much, Bhagwan disappeared.

Riding on a horse, he headed towards his village. The sun had risen. Proceeding forward, he met some people. “Nandubhai! You are coming so early?” “Yes brother. There was a station in the jungle. I stayed the night there.” “What are you talking about? There is not a station anywhere around here.” The Bhagat headed back. He glanced and saw nothing. Not the watchman, not the divan, not the candle and not the station. It was an open clear desert. However, he witnessed the horses dung and the grass which was given to the horse. He came to a fixed decision...

“That Person was no other mere person but was the Master of this universe Himself!” Tears rolled down his cheeks. He came journeying to the city of Vadtal. There, Shreeji Maharaj was seated in an assembly. On all four directions were Saints and devotees assembled. At that instant, Nandubhai approached Prabhu and while performing Dandvat Pranam to Him, he was crying. With a compassionate heart, Bhagwan Shree Hari immediately rose from His seat and bent down to embrace and stood the Bhagat up who was doing Dandvat Pranam. “My dear Bhagat! Leave this, leave this. Do not cry.”
This is a true relationship between the Master and a humble attendant.

“Dear Maharaj! If I should not cry, what should I do? I made the One I should serve, serve me. When will I become liberated from this dreadful sin? Oh Prabhu! You massaged my legs. You should have said! If You had revealed who You are, I would not have let You massage my legs. I am such a coward. I could not make it out. Please forgive me for my grave mistake, oh Prabhu! Please have mercy on me.”

Bhagwan embraced Bhagat close to His chest and said, “Dear Bhagat! Do not cry. This is a relationship between the Master and a humble attendant. This is a relationship between a Guru and a follower. It is a righteous act for mankind to serve each other. You are daily serving Me. You are feeding Me and massaging My feet in your Mansi Puja. With an affectionate heart, you apply sandalwood paste on My forehead, bow down to Me, perform worship to Me. You serve Me daily. Can I not serve you for only one day? I had a doubt that when will I ever get the chance to become free from my devotee’s debt. Bhagat… please, do not cry at all. Do not worry. Come, let us both sit together and eat.”

Bhagwan fed the Bhagat with much affinity then with contentment, advised him to depart for Umreth. Bhagwan is passionate towards His dear devotees in this way. Bhagwan is extremely sympathetic. He endures all our responsibilities.

MANTRA (83) AUM SHREE AROSHNAY NAMAH

One who never (‘a’) becomes raged (‘rosh’) upon anyone

Shatanand Swami is paying respectful obeisances to Shree Hari. “Oh Prabhu! You do not possess anger.” Shree Hari is faultless natured. In a mortal being, anger pervades in his entire body from head to toe. If something is not completed according to his inclination, his mind discharges rage and if the mind discharges a great deal of rage, it furthermore begins to beat viciously.

“Oh Maharaj! Ragunathdas bruised you to a great extent through his jealousy causing a line of blood on Your skin, yet You remained calm. During Your pilgrimage, countless demons with demonic minds uttered words that should not have been uttered, yet having an insight that it is not worth to talk back, You stayed serene but did not rage in fury.”

True intelligence becomes veiled with anger.

“Shishupal yelled out one hundred swear words to You, however You did not become irritated even a bit. In the end, You granted him with liberation. Such is Your vast amount of compassion.” Those who Bhagwan has killed have been rescued by Bhagwan and Shree Hari has merged them into Himself. Such is His consideration. “You enlighten them and accept their surrender. Oh Prabhu! You are the loving father of all souls, animals and living entities. The ignorant ones inconsiderately insult You without any reason, yet You tolerate all this with a cheerful smile. You do not show even a minute amount of anger.”

Anger is a colossal enemy to the soul. Just because of anger, everyone is in a sorrowful state. If you wish that, ‘I want to eat this’ and you do not get it, anger immediately arrives and sits in you. Anger is an extreme danger. Just as fire becomes cloaked with a lot of smoke, just as a mirror becomes cloaked with a lot of dirt, all a person’s knowledge, all their understanding becomes veiled with anger and the name of peace does not become marked as a sign.

Recognise the thief of rage! It is raiding your knowledge, understanding, compassion, peace and unity. Learn to recognise the looter. When anger emerges and you remain silent, the anger will become exceedingly diminished. Anger will think, ‘This being has recognised me. He greatly understands the glory of silence.’

There was a devotee named Kanjibhai. However, anger was overflowed within his entire body
One time, he was heading towards his farm. He was a fast walker; hence, today he was running fast. On the way, the prickly thorns of a Bordi tree stuck on his clothes, so he pulled and ripped his clothes. The following day, he dug out the Bordi tree from its main roots. One time, the edge of the cart injured him. As a result, he bit the cart with his teeth. His mouth began to bleed and his teeth fell out. Everyone informed him, “Do not bite the cart. You are distressing yourself for no reason. Subsequently, he would intimidate his wife. “Sit down, you fool! Stop talking!” All the relatives in the house would shiver in fright of Kanjibhai. No one could call him. Even the dogs of the village become terrified. When they find out that Kanjibhai is approaching here, they would stand up and go away.

Days went by and Gunatitanand Swami arrived in his village.

Kanjibhai would on a regular basis attend the Saints residence to do Satsang. He would take a seat to listen to the holy discourses. He would touch the holy feet of the Saints. Through the Darshan of the Saints, tranquility pervaded within his mind. Subsequently, he would perform worship beautifully. He would circumambulate around the divine Idol of Bhagwan. As his affection for the Saints developed, the high-quality virtues of the Saints penetrated within him. As his worldly attachment diminished, his craving to become a Saint enhanced. He arrived in the village of Gadhpur. He prayed to Shreeji Maharaj. “Please, initiate me as Your Saint!” Hearing this, Prabhu replied, “I shall initiate you as a Saint but…”

“Who will be your Guru?”

“If someone takes liability of you, I shall initiate you.” In the assembly, Shreeji Maharaj said, “Someone be the Guru of Kanjibhai!” Each and every Saint were aware of his nature that this one is as bitter as a serpent. If he beats and punches, he will seize our joy away from us. Hence, they did not reply.

Then, Shreeji Maharaj announced in the full assemblage, “Muktanand Swami is the mother of Satsang. A mother must care for her son, no matter what his behaviour is like. Whether he does not earn money, whether he speaks in any way, where would a mother throw him?! It is a mother’s duty to take care of him. Muktanand Swami will undeniably take care of Kanji Bhagat.” Swami responded, “As You say. If it is Your command, I shall certainly care for him.”

The Saints have the supremacy to make the life of a soul, who is as solid as a black rock, as purified as filtered water. Muktanand Swami thought that, “To perfectly carve people like these is hard work; hence, he kept Kanjibhai in white clothes for a few days.

sant paaras chandan baavna, kaam dhenu kalpataru saar... samagam santno ek paaras addo paaras bane, ek paarasaddo hem hoy... samagam santno ek paaras lohane kundan kare, so varase loh nav hoy... samagam

Saints are akin to a gem in which they can turn iron into gold. With ardor, his fury revolutionised. He became cool-minded. After this moment, he was initiated as a Saint and was named as Nirmananand Swami. At one time, Nirmananand Swami proceeded towards the village of Vadtal. On one peg, he hanged his cloth bag. Another Saint said, “This peg belongs to me. Take away your bag.” He hung it on another peg. That Saint made Nirmananand Swami lift his bag from the pegs eight to ten times. However, Swami did not show even a speck of anger. The Saint threw the bag on the floor in order to test Nirmananand Swami, yet Nirmananand Swami did not become raged. One attains the qualities of the one he serves.

He would serve Muktanand Swami. He would massage his legs, make him food, prepare his Guru’s worshipping accessories, carry out all the needs of his Guru and extremely obey Muktanand Swami’s orders. Muktanand Swami softened the rock and made Kanjibhai’s life fortunate. Through true Saints, many deeds of souls have been accomplished. Bhagwan never shows anger towards any living entity and is guiding others not to be hot-tempered upon anyone.

Mantra (84) Aum Shree Dirgha-Darshine Namah

One who minutely (‘dirgha’) investigates (‘darshi’) fully in all His actions

_Shatanand Swami_ is paying his respectful obeisances to Shree Hari. “Oh Prabhu! You are a detailed Thinker. You think for a long period of time and then commence Your deeds.” Simple-minded ones are short thinkers. They carry out deeds without thinking. However, Bhagwan performs deeds thinking that throughout time, everyone should achieve bliss.

When extreme excitement emerges, the foolish thinkers who make a decision on the spur of the moment are causing their own fall in dilemmas. If a king is a detailed thinker, the nation lives in harmony and joy. Bhagwan is the King of all kings. Thus, there is no doubt that His thoughts are detailed. He does not take a quick verdict. Look! What kind of in depth thoughts did Bhagwan think? He created different types of regions. He separated them in the fourteen regions. He formed fourteen floors i.e. Aatal, Sutal (where demons reside), Mahatal etc. do not need to be altered ever again. If we construct a house, when five or twenty-five years surpass, we need to transform it.

What sort of deeds does Bhagwan perform?! He does not need to change the treasurer. The Deity of the Sun, Deity of the Moon, Deity of water and all other Deities are carrying out their specified job. They do not need to be changed. Ashvanee-Kumaara is the Physician of all the Deities. Years after years pass by, yet the Physician need not to be altered. Shree Hari has formed this creation. Such is His divine deeds. No other mere being can do such. Recognise Him. We have recognised many of our family and relatives, but until we have not recognised Bhagwan, everything is incomplete.

How tall are coconut trees? Coconuts are produced from there. How must the water be filled within them? Think about it! Did the water become stored inside with a motor? Devoid of occultism, the water rises up. We would locate the tanks of water on upper floors. Only then the water will run down, but imagine! How must the rain-water be at a standstill in the middle? When rain is showered, lakes overflow. This entire creation is bursting with water.

about it! An ant is so minute. Its intestines are like strings. How must He have made them? If we think about it, we are able to realise the greatness of Bhagwan. Bhagwan has systematised such power in this world that He does not have to make an effort over again. Through His extraordinary supremacy this universe is functioning as it is today. Bhagwan’s thoughts are extremely comprehensive and perfect. Hence, His name is Dirgha-darshi.

This is a system of Akshardham.

Bhagwan Swaminarayan contemplated upon very long thoughts. He constructed separate Temples for males and females in order to care for the modesty of righteousness. He would not accept even a little mixture as this may lead to adulteration. Within the village of Loj, the female devotees would provide charcoal through a small recess in the wall and the Saints would receive them by hand from the female devotees. Bhagwan put a stop to this practice. This may seem to be a minor point, but in the upcoming future, it would have become an immense flaw and righteousness and codes of conduct would not have been able to be cared for well. The system of righteousness and reverence is not a system of this world… it is the system of Akshardham. Shree Hari has established this system in this age of Kaliyug. For many eras, no changes need to be made.

Bhagwan carries out deeds with great thought and is guiding His dear devotees to also carry out deeds with great thought. One should consider the happiness for the soul. ‘Where have I come from?! Where will I be going? Where is my original home? Who is my companion? Who is my true relative? What caste do I belong in? Who is my father? Who is my Ishtadev?’ One should reflect on these points.

Where have I come from? … I have come from Bhagwan.
Where will I be going? … I will be going to Bhagwan.
Where is my original home?… Akshardham is my original home.
Who is my companion? … My Companion is Bhagwan.
Who is my true relative?… My true Relative is Bhagwan. What is my caste?… My caste is forever young and immortal. Who is my father?… Prabhu is my Father.
Who is my Ishtadev?… Bhagwan Swaminarayan is my Ishtadev.

Think before you step forward.

At the moment, the entire world is running on route for mundane illusion. Everyone is sprinting hurriedly for mundane pleasure. They are biting into smoke. When they become exhausted, while endeavoring more than their tenacity, they are not able to gain any fruits; hence they go through many experiences of disappointments.

Many individuals with less effort achieve bliss and prosperity. They are not in much hurry behind wealth and do not go through future anxiety. The reason being is that they have surrendered their entire life unto Prabhu’s lotus feet. They have developed unity of the soul with Prabhu. ‘The Provider of harmony is One and Only Bhagwan. Only Bhagwan is my life.’ To carve this maxim in one’s own living is called detailed thinking.

Shatanand Swami is saying, “Swaminarayan Bhagwan has carried out innumerable phenominal deeds. Hence, Prabhu’s name is Dirgha-darshi.”

MANTRA (85) AUM SHREE SHAD-URMI-VIJYA-KSHAMAY NAMAH
The conqueror (‘ksham’) of the six (‘shad’) whims (‘urmi’)

Shatanand Swami is paying respectful obeisance’s to Shree Hari saying, “Oh Prabhu! You are the Conqueror of the six whims.” What are the six whims? Joy-sorrow, hunger-thirst and respect-insult. You are beyond envy and greed.” Bhagwan is in bliss at all times, in all places. Only harmony is found from within Him. Whatever kind of situation arises, quarrels do not influence Him.
No matter what kind of adverse state of affairs occur, Prabhu never experiences sorrow or dejection. Witness Shree Krishna Bhagwan’s life. The entire Yaduvansh who were the five-hundred-and-sixty million Yadavs, were relatives of Krishna Bhagwan. Struggling and battling, the Yaduvansh departed from their lives one by one by battling against each other. However, Bhagwan did not become agitated. The expression of His faces is the very same blissful expression He was living when residing within the golden Dwarika. He did not feel even a bit of sorrow or dejection, as Prabhu is the Knower of all. Bhagwan is devoid of such whims. He is furthermore the Conqueror of hunger and thirst. In the forest, Nilkanth Varni would not get food or water, yet sorrow could not unsteady Him in His faith.

No matter what sort of calamity or adversity arises, if He is insulted by anyone, a smile is always revealed on Bhagwan’s face. The chief executive of Ahmedabad insulted Prabhu so much! The demons caused a riot towards Him in the village of Aanand, yet Prabhu was in His original state. Not even a speck of sorrow. He goes through no remorse in sadness. He goes through no joy in happiness. He forever remains content and pleased in joy.

Harmony emerges from the soul.

One who acquires harmony from within us is Bhagwan and one who acquires harmony from the outside is the soul. Harmony emerges from the soul. When any mundane calamity materialises, when any mental calamity materialises, no matter how much of a difficult situation materialises, Prabhu’s consciousness is eternally harmonised. Not even a little bit of agitation or grief. Bhagwan is a unique and divine Individual. An enthronement was once been arranged. Drums were being played. The entire Ahmedabad city had been beautifully decorated with flags and bunting.

The Brahmans were preparing the chanting of mantras. When the preparation of the enthronement was been set up, Kaikeyee spoke to Ram Bhagwan about his journey to the forest, yet this did not have an effect on Bhagwan. The contentment on Bhagwan’s face during the preparation of the enthronement was remained alike during the preparation of heading for the forest. Prabhu was sentient to the fact that worldly life has a revolutionary nature. When life sneaks away, it is called worldly life.

jo dikhaataa hai vo sadaa tiktaa nahi, moh sakal vyadhi kar mulaa, taate upje puni bhav sulaa.

The tree of bewitchment and illusion is awfully entangled. Bhagwan is the Creator, Protector and Destroyer of millions of universes, yet He has no fascination in creating souls, no vanity in protecting and no grief in destruction.

In the village of Nenpur, Devji Bhagat’s only son departed his life, yet he had no pain, no fascination, no elation or sorrow. King Janak’s son passed away. Parvatbhai’s son passed away. Yet they experienced no anxiety or depression. So does this mean that all these devotees do not have affection towards their sons? They are aware that whatever is bound to happen will certainly happen and that whatever Bhagwan is doing is for the good of everyone. They forever remain pleased. Sorrow does not have the power to shift them.

In the city of Vadodra, on the day of Ramnavmi (the day of Ram Bhagwan’s birth), Bhagwan Swaminarayan was seated in an assemblage. There, a congregation consisting of many worshippers had got together. They were eagerly pining to perform worship and offer gifts to Prabhu. At that instant, the King’s minister, Bapu Saheb, arrived. He had enduring enmity towards Bhagwan Swaminarayan. Bursting with poisonous antagonism, with the pride of mastership, he pointed out his finger and yelled furiously, “Are You the Swaminarayan which the nation is calling You by? Are You the Guru of all these people assembled?”

Bhagwan answered with potency, “Yes! That is Me.”

Bapu Saheb continued, “You are a grand hypocrite! You are entrapping the entire world. What is your motive for performing hypocrisy? Get out of here. You are prohibited to dwell within state of Vadodra. If You desire to stay, leave such pretence, otherwise we shall imprison You in jail.”

Laughing, Bhagwan replied, “You will arrest Me? I will arrest you and imprison you. No one will be able to release you.”

Bapu Saheb fired back with fury, “Your practices are strange and bizarre when compared to this world. If You are the Guru of all these Saints, why are You clothed in silky heavy garments? Additionally, Your name is completely unusual to others in this world. I have never heard such name up till this day. You are sitting been called Bhagwan. Bhagwan does not even descend in this world. You are falsely performing treacherous acts. You are putting them into trance and magnetising them towards You. If no being was able to go into trance in the age of Satyug, how can it be possible in this Kaliyug? This is a flaw. I can never accept Your false talks to be true.”

Shreeji Maharaj said, “I am not telling you to believe me. Do as you wish.”

Bapu Saheb became hot red with fury. He shouted with much rage, “Sahajanand! Are You the Companion of Sitaji, Radhikaji and also Laxmiji?”

At that moment, Bhagwan Swaminarayan touched His hand on His chest and said with a lot of power, “I am the Companion of them All!”

Bapu Saheb said, “All Your utterances are false! Stating such lies will lead to increasing Your sins. One day we have to leave this world and go; hence walk on the path of righteousness. Forsake such hypocrisy and walk on the path of truth.”

Shree Hari gave an answer.

“I NEVER TELL A LIE.”

“The sins of those who chant My name burn into ashes. I am the Master of this entire universe. I never free the ones who I capture. I even release them from the prison of the illusive cycle of birth and death.”

With extreme anger, Bapu Saheb said, “What will You gain out of lying and saying that You are Bhagwan. Do have fear of Parmatma?” Like this, he spoke such harsh words to Bhagwan. Bhagwan put him into heavenly trance. He attained Darshan of Bhagwan during trance. Then he had faith that this is not a hypocrite but the Supreme Being Himself. He fell upon Bhagwan’s lotus feet and with a soft heart prayed to Him. He performed Dandvat Pranam. “Oh Prabhu! Please, forgive me.” Prabhu held both his hands and got him up. He embraced him close to His heart. “Bapu Saheb! You are Mine. You are a great Muki from the past. You are powerful to a great extent.

As you came into false association of time, you were obstructed by illusion. Now that has been cured.” When Bapu Saheb insulted Bhagwan in the full assembly, Shree Hari did not become agitated. He did not let out anger. Moreover, when Bapu Saheb fell to Shree Hari’s lotus feet, Shree Hari did not become overjoyed. With a forever pleased consciousness, His heart was bursting with harmony. Bhagwan is beyond the six whims.

MANTRA (86)

AUM SHREE NIRHANKRUTAYE NAMAH

One who possesses no (‘nir’) kind of ego (‘ahan’)

Shatanand Swami is paying respectful obeisances to Shree Hari. “Oh Prabhu! You do not preserve a speck of ego within You. You are One who proceeds in Your performances without possessing self-esteem.” Bhagwan has concealed all His divinity and is residing with His devotees in a form of a human being. If a mere soul attains a bit of authority, it would immediately shoot out with ego that, ‘How great am I! Everything is done according to my sayings. I am in charge.’ He blossoms in such ego as if there is no other than me. Such is the nature of an ordinary being, but Bhagwan possesses no such traits.
All our belongings have been given by Bhagwan, yet we are covered with pride. There was an underprivileged young boy. He wanted to get married; hence he brought ornaments from his neighbour. He brought beautiful expensive clothes. Then, he went to get married in pride. He was blossoming in his mind with emptiness that, ‘I am wearing so many ornaments. I am like a master.’ Leave it, leave it! Do not act like a coward. Whatever you have is not yours. It is your neighbours. Similarly, we are all blossoming unnecessarily. ‘Oh how great I am!’ However, the greatness is not of yours. The ornaments do not belong to you. It has been borrowed to us from Parmatma, our neighbour. When He wishes, He will seize them away.

Our good virtues are been devoured upon by false vanity. It is destroying all our harmony. Within the village of Loya, Swaminarayan Bhagwan was offering words of wisdom in an assemblage. At that time, a female Harijan (untouchable) by the name of Gangabai arrived and was sitting in a corner listening to the holy discourse. Witnessing the Harijan female, the females within the assembly began to chatter. ‘This lady is impure. Why has she been given the right to sit in this assembly?’

Hearing such quiet chattering in the assembly, Shreeji Maharaj said, “Why are you talking during the holy discourse? One should not talk while sitting in an assembly. Those who talk during a holy discourse are born as a monkey in their next life. Hence, listen with silence!”

Swaminarayan Bhagwan said, “When a domestic quadruped dies in your home, who would take it away? It does not matter if they come to your house, but when Gangabai is sitting in one corner in this assembly, have you all become impure?! Do you know why Gangabai has been born within a Harijan family?” “No Maharaj. We are unaware.”

Shreeji Maharaj said, “Gangabai was a celibate in her previous life. She had a birth in a high-status family. Therefore, she had increased pride. She had a lot of egotism. Because of different castes, she would consider everyone to be inferior and would consider herself to be great. She would insult many. As for a reason for that fault, she has taken birth in a Harijan family in this particular life.” As an exchange pride itself lowers a person’s status.

A person should certainly protect his ways of morality but should never offend others in any manner. One should not possess arrogance because of their high status, mastership and increased wealth.

Bhagwan is the Master of many millions of universes. He has done everything, yet does not have even a bit of self-esteem. If a poor individual wants to meet a master, it is impossible but Bhagwan gladly respects the poor. He may be an Emperor, however, He is an exceptional Respecter of the poor that his heart melts when seeing a deprived person. When a worldly person gathers four pennies, he immediately shows pride. Conversely, Bhagwan is the Master of wealth, yet He is ‘Nirhankrutaye’. He has no pride whatsoever.

MANTRA (87) AUM SHREE ADROHAY NAMAH

One who does not (‘a’) insult (‘droh’) anyone

Shatanand Swami is saying, “Oh Prabhu! You never insult anyone. You are ‘Adrohi’ (One who never insults). When someone insults You, You tolerate it but never insult back. Furthermore, You are guiding others that if you ever insult, you will be a hindered soul.” Insults throw one in the darkness of hell. There is no other sin as insulting. Repentance of other sins may be stated in the sacred Scriptures, but there is no repentance stated in the Scriptures for an insulter. That sin becomes stuck to the sinner like a strong plaster of cement and iron.

If one has committed grave sins such as killing a holy cow, a child, a female or a Brahman, one may become liberated from that sin by repenting, but those who offend or insult a Saint, Brahman, Guru, Deity or Incarnations of Bhagwan, do not become pure even by repenting. He subsequently Hence, he performed five extra Dandvat Pranams.

It was Swaminarayan Bhagwan’s daily routine to perform Dandvat Pranams after performing the act of worshiping. One time, he performed one extra Dandvat Pranam. Viewing this, Shukamunee asked, “Oh Maharaj! Why did You perform one extra Dandvat Pranam today?” Bhagwan gave a beautiful reply. “In case I have knowingly or unknowingly insulted anyone, for the prevention, I have performed one extra Dandvat Pranam.” This is a narration worth understanding.

Towards Bhagwan, many demonic natured demons approach Him with fury. They insult in a full assembly that, ‘Get out from this village.’ Hearing such insults, Shreeji Maharaj would never offend them back. He would attempt to enlighten them but would not insult and offend them. He is the Emperor of all Kings, yet He is tolerating such harsh words of such minor souls. His nature is such where He has a friendly behaviour towards all.

Many are known to be devotees of Bhagwan, but they insult and afflict upon Bhagwan, Bhagwan’s Saints and single-minded devotees because of jealousy. Whether they perform devotion, play instruments and ceaselessly chant Shree Hari’s name, they do not attain Akshardham. They are destined to fall in hell.

Shreeji Maharaj has stated in the Vachanamrut that, ‘If an act is committed where Bhagwan’s Saints or Bhagwan’s Incarnations become distressed, that person would suffer the pain of hell through this very mortal body within this Mrutyulok (the region where the cycle of birth and death continues). If one upsets Bhagwan or Saints, even though he has performed righteous acts leading to heaven, he is fated to fall in the darkness of hell. Hence, one should by no means insult Bhagwan’s devotees or Saints. If one can commit himself to fruitful acts, he should do so, but one should have fear for sins.

Devanand Swami is singing:-

paapno bhare re maathe paapno bhare, paapi ke ke ke ne kem paapno bhare; juvaanima aag laagi, partriyaahare, dev sadhune brahman teni nindaa bahu kare. paapi...
e paape kari ravi kinkar zaalvaa te nare, devanand kahe maar tadaaatad van mote mare... paapi.

If you abuse Saints or Brahmans, the Yamduts will beat you ever so much and turn you into smoke in hell. One time, Brahmanand Swami was journeying from one village to another with Saints. On the way, youngsters obstructed them. Without any reason, they began to insult the Saints. If they do not want give anything or take anything, the demonic-minded ones would, without any cause, abuse. Whether you bow down to Saints or do not bow down, that is up to you, but one should on no account tease them and hurt their hearts.

In the Puranas, narrations of devils such as Ravan’s and Kans’s names have been written. Ravan and Kans did not have horns on their heads. Ravan has not died. Many Ravans still exist in this world. The youngsters are engaging in a conversation between each other. Youth is extremely puffed up that if one is not cautious, it would abuse many. The youth are saying, “Look at these Swaminarayan bold heads. Look how they have puffed up their stomachs by eating ladus.”

Brahmanand Swami heard these words with his own ears. Brahmanand Swami’s pot-belly was a little big. These youths teased him. Swami said, “Cowards! I have not increased the size of my belly by eating ladus. I have merely filled my heart with faith of Parmatma Swaminarayan and devotion to Him. You fools! The food at the size of a mere lemon is been eaten daily and gone into this stomach and you are ignorantly speaking as you wish?!” Uttering such words, the Saints continued in their journey.

Just on the following day, one youth became mentally mad. He would shout in the village and roam around. In a miserable condition, in the end, he fell in the darkness of hell. He rotted in this birth and in the next. He became exceptionally traumatised. Insulting Saints demolishes one’s generation. It Devstates one’s life span, intelligence and harmony. The narration of this \textit{Janmangal} is extremely phenomenal. This is a narration where, after reading it, our faults or defects within us ought to be washed away.

Hence, the sacred Scriptures are warning and cautioning us. Do not abuse. Do not insult. One should bow their head down to the Saints holy feet. This earth becomes sanctified through their holy footsteps. One should wash their holy feet and drink the water. \textit{Shreeji Maharaj} washed Vasudevanand Brahmchari’s holy feet and drank the water. If \textit{Parmatma} Himself understands the greatness, then we are as minor as a mosquito. It is not a simple task to become a Saint. We should not perform acts in which others may be afflicted. More than blood relations, one should forever last their relationships with devotees.

\textbf{MANTRA (88) AUM SHREE RUJAVE NAMAH}
\textit{One whose nature is simple-hearted}

\textit{Shatanand Swami} is paying respectful obeisances to \textit{Shree Hari}. “\textit{Oh Prabhu! You are Ruju. You have a simple-hearted nature. You do not maintain grudges against anyone. You are not tying knots of enmity in your mind.”} One who endures life by meeting and mixing well with one another is called Ruju. One whose life is not crooked is called Ruju. One who does not cause controversy, one who does not blame others without witnessing is called Ruju.

\textit{Bhagwan} becomes like a child when with a child. He becomes like an elderly when with an elderly. He even mixes with the wealthy ones and also approaches \textit{Sitaji’s} little hut. In this universe, people who belong in a high-status do not in general even look at the poor. If they do not even talk to them, what to talk about visiting their homes?! However, the Master of this entire world would go to Sagraam Vagri’s house. He would go to fulfil his devotees’ wishes bare-footed.

He would accept the requests of the poor and, at the same time, accept the requests of young children. If a devotee offers Him Indian sweets, He would consume it and if a devotee offers Him \textit{Mathno rotlo}, He would also consume it. Give a \textit{Mathno rotlo} to a mere officer and you will see! It will be an interesting sight. A quarrel takes form.

‘You are insulting me?!’ Nevertheless, many praises to the Master of this universe! He is fond of Indian sweets as well as spinach. He is fond of bungalows as well as little huts. He is fond of cities as well as jungles.

\textbf{REMEMBER THESE FOUR THINGS.}
\textit{Chalse, favshe, bhavshe ane gamshe.} ‘If this aphorism is accomplished, one will experience harmony. One should attain the virtues of water. Water can be stored in any place. It can be stored in a metallic pot. It can be stored in a glass. It can be stored in a clay pot. It does not require a specific type of dish to be stored in. It can be stored anywhere. In the same way, we should settle everywhere in the manner of water.

‘I cannot live without a fan in the summer time.’ ‘I cannot get mental peace without drinking tea in the mornings.’ ‘If there is not a bedroom with air conditioning, I cannot fall asleep.’ ‘I do not enjoy it when the food is not hot and when there is no bitter curry.’ ‘Whatever my mind wants, it should obtain.’ ‘Whatever I say should happen.’ Mankind is living in many types of peculiar viewpoints and, as a matter of fact, this is the actual reason why, step be step, calamities are arising in the mind and why afflictions arise.

If one wishes to liberate from such fear, be simple-hearted. ‘\textit{Chalse, favshe, bhavshe ane gamshe.}’ ‘Weave this phase in your life. The core nature of water is tranquil and cool. No matter how much you boil water, in the end, it will cool down. In order to cool it down, no physical effort is needed. In all our lives, tranquility is particularly crucial. No matter how much the opposing individual endeavors to irritate you, if you become extremely raged, remember this narration. In case you become emotionally fuming, learn to cool down in the end. If you disregard each other’s faults, only then the mentality will turn to be calm.

If the appalling nature of the individual is cured, that individual will become enlightened. The thought of letting go and the thought of compromising and sorting out the problems will lead a person to peace and bliss. Hence, it is crucial for a person to be simple-hearted. The nature of our Ishtadev, Shree Swaminarayan Bhagwan, is Ruju. If one preserves Him in his heart and meditates upon Him, if one performs Mala and at that same time if his personality is like a scorpion, what is the point? Ones negative nature becomes healed if one heals it himself.

If a ripe mango is sour but it tolerates the intense heat of the sun, the sourness would die out and sweetness would penetrate within. A lady had a habit of eating extremely bitter food where the oil and red chillies would rest on the surface of the curry. When the lady’s wedding day approached she found out that her fiance had a habit of eating tasteless food. Both had different eating habits. The wife thought, ‘How will I survive in this house? I will have to make different food for both of us. This will be double trouble.’ From today, I shall not consume bitter food but tasteless food. I will eat plain food, but how will I enjoy the taste?!’ Her whole life she had fed upon extremely bitter food. Tasteless food did not go down her throat. She did not enjoy it. She would eat two spoonfuls and then spit it out. She then built her mind with toughness. ‘I have married my husband; hence, I should live according to his nature. Only then will I achieve peace and harmony.’ After a matter of two to three months, the lady’s nature had altered. She succeeded and built the habit of eating tasteless food.

If you give grief to your husband and desire to be content, then that bliss is akin to mirage water. If you make your husband shed tears and laugh about it, a day will appear where there will be no one to wipe your tears. If Athamu was to deteriorate, it would deteriorate in a year, but if the lady of the house deteriorates, her entire life deteriorates. Shatanand Swami is saying, “You act in favour of Your dear devotees. You possess simple-heartedness especially for the sake of Your devotees.”

MANTRA (89)

AUM SHREE SARVA-OPKAR-KAY NAMAH

One who shows benevolence (‘opkar’) towards all (‘sarva’) living entities

Shatanand Swami is paying respectful obeisances to Shree Hari. “Oh Prabhu! You are benevolent to all souls, animals and living entities. You are even benevolent towards the ones who are ungrateful to You. You have accepted the surrender of those hypocrites, lustful, wicked, iniquitous and fraudulent ones who used to elude millions of people and terrorise them. Being a Guru, they would loot women and wealth. You changed the polluted devious souls who would commit to sinful acts, and changed them into devotees. You acted out benevolent deeds towards thousands of men who belonged in the Marathi caste, Koli caste, Vaagri caste and the Muslims whose hearts became solid and impure. With generosity, You even liberated their souls.”

Shree Hari accepted the surrender of Muslims of the Khoja caste, the inhabitants of Sindh, the Arabs and other people whose hearts were overflowing with pollution. He performed benevolent acts and liberated those innumerable greatly polluted attached souls who could not even be liberated after many births. The precarious living entities such as the animals living on land, creatures living in water, birds in the sky, serpents, tigers, bears and so on, were glanced upon by the divine sight of Prabhu, becoming sanctified and entitled for final liberation.

“You demonstrated Your magnificent glory to the arrogant demonic souls who, through the attributes of illusion, beat and traumatised Saints and devotees. You made individuals observe complex vows which cannot even be observed and followed by anyone in the age of Satyug. You made these divine souls entitled to reach your divine heavenly Akshardham.” Bhagwan is benevolent towards every entity.

WHO IS DIGESTING ONE’S EATEN FOOD?

Who is keeping us alive through food, water and light? Bhagwan is keeping us alive. Who is waking us up in the mornings? Bhagwan is waking us. If He does not wake us up, the final procession (one’s own funeral) would need to be organised. Who is putting us to sleep at the time of night?
Bhagwan is putting us to sleep. We are powerless of doing anything. Even sleep is not in our hands, et we announce with power that, ‘I do not believe in Bhagwan.’ If you do not believe in Him, Bhagwan will not become less potent. You should become aware of what will happen to you.

Who is digesting one’s eaten food? Bhagwan is digesting it. Bhagwan is saying, ‘You go to sleep and I will stay awake all night digesting your food.’ What will happen if He does not digest it?
One will pass away. Who is controlling the rhythm of our every breath? Bhagwan is controlling it.
Day and night Bhagwan is waving the fan of the current of air. Who is ripening the fruits, flowers and food in accordance of the weather? Bhagwan is ripening them. If you keep on watering them, but Bhagwan does not wish to ripen them, nothing will happen. Hence, every step you take, remember Bhagwan.

Bhagwan created this Mother Earth in favour of us. He created these trees. He gifted us with speech so we can talk. If we did not possess speech, what would we have done? He gifted us with eyes.
If he had not, what would we have done? What would we have done if we did not have ears? Wherever we glance, bear in mind Bhagwan’s benevolence. There is no end to Bhagwan’s benevolence. Do not dismiss Him from your mind.

upkaar tamara bhaare re, he shree nivaasaa, hu nirkhu vaare vaare re, he shree nivaasaa, kaya maanasni kevi rudi kidhi, tema yukti kevi bhari didhi;
jagdishe karuna kidhi re, he shree nivaasaa... upkaar...
taaju dudh baalakne kaaje, maana stanma bharyu maharaje, daant aapyaa jamvaa kaaje re, he shree nivaasaa.upkaar.

Look at Bhagwan’s immense benevolence! Before birth, He filled a mother’s chest with milk.
He bestowed us with teeth to chew. He bestowed us with food to eat. He bestowed us with water to drink. He gifted us with air at no cost. He gifted us with an intellectual brain. Bhagwan has offered us many types of gifts.

This is a narration which needs to be appreciated. Bhagwan’s divine names are auspicious. His generosity comes to no end. If you are poor and a person takes you abroad and you properly earn money there, you would appreciate the benevolence of that person who took you there that, ‘This brother has been compassionate to me.’ If Bhagwan has brought us to this earth of Mother India and gave us understanding of the faith towards Supreme Shree Hari, we should be grateful for His deep compassion. ‘Dear Bhagwan! What can I say about Your intense consideration?!’ The first gift is that He has given such human birth in the country of India, in a high status family and moreover, within Satsang.

If you are awfully ill and you go to the doctor and you become well with the doctor’s prescribed medicine, you would appreciate the doctor’s sympathy. If your leg is broken then only through Bhagwan’s compassion the doctor prescribes you with medicine. When you reach a good condition, you thank the doctor. Even though you pay him, you are thankful to him. Bhagwan has given such fine eyes, legs and everything. Did He take a penny from us? He gifted us with everything free off charge. Think deeply.
You will be enlightened on how much sympathy Bhagwan has showered upon us. We do not forget the virtue of one who takes out a thorn stuck to our skin. However, if Bhagwan has given such a human body and one forgets such a virtue, then, in reality, he is an ungrateful person. Premanand Swami is intensely appreciative of Bhagwan’s compassion and is singing emotionally from deep within the heart:

- baay zaaline kadhi lidhi baarne re lol, nahitar vahi jaat kyaayne kyaay alabele jau,
- dharma kuvarne vaarne re lol.

Just as Bhagwan is greatly benevolent, His Saints are also greatly benevolent. Benevolent Saints are ornaments of Mother India. There is no end to Bhagwan’s benevolence and there is no end to mankind’s obstinacy. Swaminarayan Bhagwan frequently states, ‘Look at My efforts. Do not stain My golden-like Satsang. Wish well for those who have surrendered.’ To be benevolent is a great matter. Shatanand Swami is saying, “Oh Prabhu! You are compassionate. You show benevolence towards all souls, animals and living entities.”

MANTRA (90)

_Aum Shree Niyamkay Namah_

The Controller (‘niyamak’) of all

Shatanand Swami is paying respectful obeisances to Shree Hari. “Oh Prabhu! You are the Controller of all souls, animals and living entities. You control the sun, moon, Indra, SheshNarayan, the Deity of water, time, illusion, musicians of the Deities, celestial musicians, the thirty-three-hundred-thousand Deities and the innumerable universes.”

If we want to perform a deed such as a yagna ceremony, marriage ceremony or any other social deeds, certain individuals need to be assigned. Various different work needs to be assigned. The leader allocates. Parmatma wants to manage innumerable factories of the universes; hence, He has allocated different jobs and they are all assisting Bhagwan in His management. Vishnu has been allocated to preserve. Shivi has been allocated to destruct and Brahma has been allocated to create all souls, animals and living entities. He creates their appearances in a way where no one has the same face. Everyone’s face is dissimilar and unique! You will never be able to see two people with the same face. Bhagwan told Indra, ‘You are allocated to shower rain.’ The Deity of the Sun has been allocated the job to illuminate the entire universe. The Deity of the Moon has been allocated to pervade coolness. The Deity of water has been allocated to control water. Dharmaraja (the King of righteousness) has been allocated the job to investigate everyone’s account of life. Chitragupta has been allocated the job to calculate everyone’s fruitful and sinful acts. Time has been allocated the job to take souls to the Dharmaraja. Fire has been allocated to glow and flame. Vidhata has been allocated to write everyones documents of karmas (effects of past actions, from this or previous lifetimes). The King of the Yamduts has been allocated to punish the sinful souls. Cupid has been allocated to increase the nation. The weathers have been allocated to produce different fruits. Kuberji has been allocated to be Shree Haris’ treasurer. Dharmaraja has been allocated to be the judge. He must make a decision between justice and injustice. The Deity of wind has been allocated to give wind. In this way, Bhagwan has allocated all the Deities with different jobs.

Whoever Bhagwan has allocated in their specific jobs, each of them is carrying out their duties. They are assisting Bhagwan in His creation. They are staying within the boundaries of the moralities and rules that Bhagwan has established and are at the same time performing their allocated tasks. They are not failing at all in their duties. They are performing their tasks in accordance to Bhagwan’s order. In this way, Bhagwan is the Controller of all.
The Controller of all of them is Parmatma, but there is no controller of Bhagwan. Whoever is allocated with their specific duties should carry out their tasks. This is the intention of this mantra. One should stay within their own boundary of morality and carry out their duties. All the Deities are living within their created boundary of duties, but a human is such a foolish living entity that it is going away from the created boundaries of its moralities and rules. It is acting as it wishes; hence it becomes afflicted and falls in the darkness of hell.

“IMPROVE YOUR BEHAVIOUR.”

The most unforeseen matter is that all the Deities are performing their given tasks by Bhagwan and are following their moralities and rules but a human is such an obstinate person that He is not obeying his Master’s commands.

The Guru of a ruler once arrived at his home. He stayed there for a few days. The guru presented a great deal of advice but it did not take an effect on him. He was then on his way on a cart to another village to drop his Guru. During the journey the horse began to misbehave. It would jump and gallop in all directions. The coachman would work particularly hard to control the horse. He would put a lot of effort in riding the horse properly but the horse could not be managed in any way. The ruler said to his Guru, “Oh Guru! I have bought this horse for four thousand rupees as he looked like he was in a good condition. I am feeding him well, giving him water and have kept many coachmen who have tried to improve his movement, but this horse is not improving his galloping. My money has been thrown in water and I am experiencing distress.”

Hearing this, the Guru said, “How much pain are you suffering by witnessing the appalling movement of your horse? You are the master of your horse; hence you are undergoing pain. If your actions are also appalling, does Bhagwan not also undergo pain? The horse is not doing as you are commanding; hence you are hurt. So if you do not do as Bhagwan is commanding, does Bhagwan not become hurt?” Thoughtfully, the ruler answered, “That is true. Bhagwan does become hurt.”

The Guru said, “I had given you a vow that from now, you should not consume liquor, gamble or steal, yet you have begun to commit these sinful acts. There is no end to the horse’s obstinacy and similarly there is no end to your obstinacy. Just as you are feeding your horse well with pleasant food, Bhagwan has also produced pleasant food for us. Forsaking that, why are you consuming impure products?

Just as you have kept those coachmen to improve your horse, Bhagwan has also kept sacred Scriptures and Saints as coachmen to improve behaviours like yours, yet your behaviour has not improved. First, improve your own behaviour and then improve the horse’s behaviour.” Hearing this, the ruler abandoned all his sinful acts and committed himself to a vow to do daily Satsang. Shatanand Swami is saying, “Oh Prabhu! You are the Controller of all.”

MANTRA (91) AUM SHREE UPSHAM-STHITAYE NAMAH

One who directs all the senses towards the heart

Shatanand Swami is paying respectful obeisances to Shree Hari. “Oh Prabhu! You are in a condition of ‘Upsham’. To direct the faculty of the organs towards the heart is called ‘Upsham Sthiti’. Just as a tortoise contracts its own parts of the body from all four directions, one that pulls his organs from speech and so one, is known to be in an ‘Upsham’ state. It is exceedingly intricate to reach such state. The state of ‘Upsham’ is also known to be ‘Sthitipragna’ (one whose mind is fixed in the knowledge of the highest truth and is consequently free from the vicissitudes of hope and despair, pleasure and suffering). A ‘Sthitipragna’ person can never be distressed by anyone. If any material intricacy arises, if any mental activity arises, this person contracts its body parts in the manner of a tortoise.

A tortoise is a small creature. When a tortoise walks, we can notice its head, feet and everything. When the tortoise thinks that someone is approaching, it contracts its head and feet and remains still like a rock. Likewise, one who is in an ‘Upsham’ state cannot be moved by worldly pleasures sufferings. No matter what kind of obscurity occurs, his mind remains beyond worries. One who manages its mind from all four directions into Bhagwan is called an ‘Upsham’. Just as a fountain of water shoots out, from the mind, long chains of indecisive imagination shoot out. The power is not left free, but one should preserve his faculty in the Leelas of Bhagwan, in Kirtans and devotion and become ever so madly in love with Bhagwan that he does not feel conscious of his own body. When all material powers come to an end, a person can reach an ‘Upsham’ state.

You entangle Your devotees in Your own divine form.” One who forgets consciousness while in the body is known to be ‘Upsham’. If we enter the deepness of this mantra, the clear meaning is that one should enter a divine mood and engage in the devotion to Bhagwan. One should consider that ‘I am different from the body.’ One should identify the original form of oneself through knowledge. If one views the body to be false, one penetrates within the pleasure of the soul.

One cannot reach an ‘Upsham’ state without having stable faith and trust upon Bhagwan. It is not an easy task to forget the conscious of the body. It was the Gopees who forgot the awareness of their body. They became crazy after Bhagwan. Govardhanbhai forgot the awareness of his body and entered an ‘Upsham’ state in which he ate a pot of sutarfeni (name of an Indian sweet) yet nothing happened to him. He fed himself and also fed Bhagwan’s hunger.

In a village, there was a devotee of Bhagwan who had deep faith that he was a soul. He was an affectionate devotee. Unexpectedly, his wife passed away. His neighbour’s wife also passed away. The neighbour would ceaselessly shed tears of pain but a knowledgeable person never experiences sorrow. He possessed the understanding that everything happens according to Bhagwan’s wish. Just as abundant people get together in a public charitable water-house and in a short amount of time, they head towards different paths, in the same way many souls with different names are born in a single home. In the end, they head towards their own pathways.

In a flow of a river, the grains of sand do not forever remain united. Similarly, souls never remain united. This life is also as unsteady as the flow of water. The foundations of a building are always deep. The roots of a tree are deep. However, on the contrary, there is no root of a human’s life.

When a building is constructed, we would advise the builder to dig and lay the foundation deep. However, the body living within it has no foundation itself, so how can the foundation be dug deep? If one becomes in a state where he thinks of himself as a soul and not the body and if he then engages in devotion, he gains a deep foundation and his cycle of birth and death comes to a halt. The knowledgeable person is explaining to his neighbour, “Day and night you are crying after your wife’s death. Will your wife come back if you cry? Why are you beating your chest without any reason?” The neighbour answered, “I am surprised my wife has passed away. My intake of food and sleep has lessened. I do not like anything. I feel this worldly life is desolate and why are you not feeling anything?” At that time, the knowledgeable person said:-

 jurkho maani rahyo che maaru, temaa kaai nathi taaru, saat sagar jeni choki kartaa, furtu nir khaaru; chaud chokdi raajya chaalyu gayu, raavanaadik vaalu re… jurkho…
 dukhane to koi dekhe nahi ne, sukh laage saaru, velaa velaane chaaydi taari, badi jaashe vaaru re. jurkho.
“Why are people ceaselessly saying ‘mine, mine’? Some people are at an early stage, some at a later stage. In the end, everyone will depart. Now do not shed tears after your wife. Cry for your life that ‘I want to attain liberation in this life.’ One’s teeth become destroyed, one’s eyes become destroyed, one’s strength in the body becomes destroyed but one’s hunger is never destroys. Who knows how deep its roots are! The stump of the trees in a field can be uprooted with a tractor but the roots of illusion cannot be uprooted. It can only be uprooted with understanding. It can be uprooted with Satsang. What should one do to dig it out?” Listen to what the devotee is saying:-

hari bhajanma het j raakho, smaran karo saaru, bhojo bhagat kahe rakho radayma, prabhu bhajan pyaru re..murkho

(Those who have affection towards devotion to Bhagwan and who recite Bhagwan’s divine name and preserves Him in the heart, achieve eternal bliss)

The knowledgeable devotee explained the true reality. Therefore the neighbour began to do Satsang and his affection decreased. The main point is that Prabhu is ‘Upsham’ and is guiding His followers to firstly become cloaked with the understanding that he is the soul and thereafter devote upon Bhagwan.

MANTRA (92) AUM SHREE VINYAVATE NAMAH

One who is extremely polite and humble (‘vinay’)

Shatamand Swami is paying respectful obeisances to Shree Hari. “Oh Prabhu! You are extremely polite. Along with this virtue, You are also modest. Oh Prabhu! You accumulate all the virtues within Yourself. You are the Ocean of virtues, yet You never fail in Your modesty.” How humble is Bhagawaan? He has an impartial view towards everyone. He nurtures souls according to their worth.

In the Shikshapatri, Shreeji Maharaj has stated that, ‘My devotees shall give due respects to the deserving persons (on the basis of birth, quality, qualification, culture and so on) without equating the low with the high.’ Bhagwan is the Treasurer of politeness and modesty. He is adorned with knowledge, modesty and humbleness. Prabhu is the Ocean of politeness.

How polite is Bhagwan? When sat on a Royal Throne, when a king or any great Saints arrive, he would provide them a seat in the front row of the assembly. If an affectionate devotee brings a gift, He would rise from His wooden bedstead, walk towards him and accept the gift with a sweet smile. Such is His politeness. Jeevan Bhakt of the village of Jetalpur brought Mathno rotlo and approached Bhagwan to feed Him with affection. At that moment, Shreeji Maharaj advanced towards him to accept the offering. Giving warmth in such way, He is showing and showering His devotees with love. “This Mathno rotlo has the taste of nectar.” He then gave His devotees the offerings. Prabhu is the Ocean of politeness.

When the family of Father Dharma arrived in Vadtal from Chapaiya, Prabhu Swaminarayan embraced His big brother Rampratapbhai and touched his feet. Bhagwan, whose lotus feet are touched by the whole world, would touch His own brother’s feet. He would ask about his health and show hospitality towards him and ask about the other family members. Bhagwan Swaminarayan has taught politeness through His divine speech and divine Leelas. He Himself is polite; hence is the Father of this entire world. He has descended upon this earth with a divine human form. At that time, He touches the holy feet of His Mother and Father. He touches the feet of His elder brother. He touches the feet of His sister-in-law. If an elderly person arrives in the village of Chapaiya, He would humbly bow down His head. He is exceptionally polite. He would greet those who arrive in His courtyard and would provide a seat for them to sit. He would offer them water and would take a seat with them and eat. He would welcome them in a well-manner.
Oh how civil is Bhagwan! He would walk by foot towards His poor devotees and accept their service. When Sudama came to meet Him in Dwarika, Bhagwan Dwarika-dhish ran hurriedly, down the stairs two steps at a time, held Sudama’s hands and greeted Him in the royal court. He washed Sudama’s feet and welcomed him. He fed him well. Prabhu would talk in a way where the underprivileged ones would become satisfied. When he speaks there is no scarcity of speech. Yet how polite is He, that He would acknowledge the most plain and simple gift. He keeps everyone content.

Do not keep anyone or anything dear other than Bhagwan.

Shreeji Maharaj bathed in the River Ghela in Gadhpur and was journeying His way towards the Royal Court. It was nine o’clock in the night. There was a beggar seated near Jiva Khachar’s front door. He was yelling, “I am hungry. Give me something to eat.” Bhagwan offered him thick chapattis. Being pleased, He placed His right lotus-like feet on the beggar’s chest and granted him with the gift of final liberation. We should also be prepared to go to Bhagwan’s divine heavenly Akshardham. Whenever Bhagwan arrives to pick us up, we should not say, “I still have this much to do.” Be wise and do not keep anything left to do. If you do, it will lead you to a miserable condition.

There was an old lady in the village of Dabhan. She had buried her thirteen rupees under the grinding hand-mill. After some time, she became ill. Shreeji Maharaj came to pick her up to take her to His divine Akshardham. The old lady told Shree Hari, “Oh Maharaj! Let me consign these thirteen rupees to the care of my daughter. I will come after that.” Hearing these words, Shreeji Maharaj walked off. The lady became a spirit, who was unable to give the money to her daughter and was most importantly unable to reach Akshardham.

When we are engaged in a conversation with an individual at a bus station and the bus arrives, we rapidly take a seat on the bus. Live life in this way. Do not keep anyone or anything dear other than Bhagwan. Bhagwan is polite. He is modest. He is compassionate. He is the Well-wisher of every single soul, animal and living entity. However, we should be very cautious and learn to be modest. To possess humbleness is a Saint’s ornament. It is the beauty of a single-minded devotee.

MANTRA (93) AUM SHREE GURAVE NAMAH

The Abolisher of ignorance and the Guru of all Gurus

Shatanand Swami is paying respectful obeisances to Shree Hari. “Oh Prabhu! You are the Guru of all Gurus.

gurur brahmaa gurur vishnuh,gurur devo maheshvarah ।
guruh saakshaat param brahm,taasmai shree gurve namah ॥

The Guru is Brahma Himself, the Creator. The Guru is Vishnu Himself, the protector of all souls, animals and living entities. The Guru is Shiveji Himself. Oh Guru Shree Hari! Only You are the Supreme Being Shree Purshotam Narayan Himself. You possess the abundance of knowledge. I am bowing down to You.

You are the Guru of all the Gurus within this entire universe.” One who enlightens one from the darkness is a true Guru. One who journeys one to the path of the illumination of knowledge from the darkness of ignorance is a true Guru. One who influences one’s mind to be played with Mohan Bhagwan and halts one’s mind from playing in illusion, is a true Guru.

Without making a Guru, no deeds can be performed with satisfaction.

If one wishes to be successful in any kind of deed, one must initially make a Guru. Without making a Guru, no deed is performed gracefully. If one wants to learn the skill of art one must make a skillful Guru. If one wants to learn the skill of music, one must be trained by a professional in that art of music. If one wants to learn medical science, one must be trained by a high-quality physician. If one wants to learn true knowledge, one must approach a superior and advanced Saint and learn from him, just as if one wants to liberate oneself from the cycle of birth and death, one must make Supreme Shree Hari his Guru. One must surrender upon Him.

Without a Guru, one cannot attain knowledge. Without knowledge, the obscurity within the heart does not ease away. Saints liberate those souls who are distressed by ignorance and bewitchment. Saints guide the humans who are moulded in confusion and chaos and carve them into blissful souls.

A father’s one and only son had passed away. All his relatives that came to pay respect cried. Hence, that householder mourned increasingly. At that instant, a Saint approached and said, “Why are you all getting together and crying?!” “Oh Swami! My one and only son has passed away.” The Saint said, “You are all sitting here gathered, yet why did you let the son pass away?” The relatives answered, “There is no method of preventing death.” The great man said, “Why then are you all shedding tears? Will his life come back if you cry? If you all want to be saved from death, have affection for Prabhu and cry. This is the only method of the discontinuing of birth and death. Other than that, no benefits will be achieved by crying.” Through the words of wisdom of such true Saint, everyone stopped crying and began to devote upon Bhagwan and chant His divine name. Such Saints cause the fading of one’s confusion and chaos in the mind.

Shatanand Swami is saying, “Oh Prabhu! You established good civilisation and nurtured many souls. You destroyed the immoral behaviour in this world, the appalling practices, the bad habits and the blindness of people who were illumined in Tamsik Deities. You increased knowledge and non-attachment within the souls of this illusive world. You are the Guru of Jagadgurus.”

‘KRUSHNAM VANDE JAGADGURUM.’

There is one point which must be understood. Without serving your Guru, one does not reach a level where he deserves knowledge. Shree Krishna resided with Sandipni Rushi where he studied and at the same time, served him. Bhagwan Swaminarayan very affectionately served His Guru, Ramamand Swami. Ram Bhagwan served His Guru, Vashisth. By serving, the pleased Guru would not educate but the disciple would experience the sprouting of knowledge in their mind. There is a beautiful narration relating to this point.

Jagadguru Shankaraacharya had a foolish natured disciple. His name was Totak. His other disciples were intellectual in studying and singing but this disciple had no talent. He did not know how to study but would enthusiastically run and engage in service according to his potency. The intellectual ones in studying and singing possessed ego that, ‘How intelligent and smart are we. This Totak is such a coward. He is foolish.’ Totak would massage his Guru’s legs and head, wash his clothes and dishes, clean the hermitage, cook delicious food and feed his Guru. He would engage in good-quality service. Sometimes when his Guru would tell him off, his mind would not become dull. Thus, His Guru becomes pleased. Educated ones would not engage in service. They would study but would not have motivation to serve.

THE EGO OF THE EDUCATED ONES MELTED AWAY.

One time, held back in serving, Totak did not arrive to study. The Guru asked, “Has Totak not come yet? Then, wait for a little while.” The intelligent disciples interrupted, “Guru! He is utterly inappreciative and uneducated. Why linger around for him?” The Guru did not like what he heard. ‘Day and night Totak is serving me.’ The Guru raised a thought that, ‘All these have been educated from me but are intertwined with knowledge along with ego. Totak has not studied; hence they perceive him to be in a low state. The fact that they perceive themselves as great is a grave mistake.’ With his own power, Shankaraacharya transferred education and knowledge into Totak. Whilst washing his Guru’s clothes, Saraswati, the Goddess of knowledge and intelligence, penetrated within his heart. After washing and drying the clothes, he was arriving to study but, at the same time, chanting a beautiful verse in the divine Sanskrit language:

\text{urdhva mul madh shaakhaa, mashvatham praahur vyayam}
\]
\[
\text{chhandansi yasya parnaani, yastam ved sa vedvit ll}

Upon hearing such beautiful, clearly articulated verses, everyone stood up to look. ‘Who has come reciting a verse so well?’ As they looked, they saw Totak. He was walking while reciting. Everyone fell in deep thought. Their ego immediately melted away.

Through the surrender upon his Guru, through engaging in the service of his Guru, he gained such fruits. Bhagwan is the Guru of all Gurus in this entire universe. One should remain in His service and do Satsang. Atree Rushi is saying, “There is no wealth on this earth from which a disciple can become free from the debt of his Guru, who has gifted him the knowledge of even a mere single letter.” A Guru in life is essentially required. Without a Guru, one cannot reach one’s set goal. Bowling down to Jagadguru Bhagwan, Shatanand Swami is reciting the ninety-fourth mantra.

\text{MANTRA (94) AUM SHREE AJATA-VAIRINE NAMAH}

One who has no (‘a’) enemies (‘vairi’) in the entire universe

Shatanand Swami is paying respectful obeisances to Shree Hari. “Oh Prabhu! You have no enemies and do not perceive anyone as Your enemy. You are the conqueror of the inner enemies. Everyone is affectionate to You. Perhaps demons like Kans, Ravan and the King of Ahmedabad named Subaa, would have enmity towards You, but You do not have enmity towards them.” Maybe a human mind will doubt that if there is no enemy of Bhagwan, why did He battle with Ravan, Kans, Hiranyakashipu and the likes? Why did He kill them? As an answer to that, Prabhu has liberated those who He has taken the lives of. He has not insulted them but has liberated them. He has given them the attainment of a high status.

When Putna came to feed him poison, Prabhu gave her liberation akin to His Mother Jashoda. If He had enmity, He would not liberate her like He liberated His mother. A soul might have enmity against Supreme Shree Hari but Supreme Shree Hari does not have enmity against any soul, animal or living entity. Prabhu’s vision is not opposing at all. Bhagwan does not possess any sinful sources such as antagonism and anger. There is no enmity in His divine heavenly Akshardham either. There is no enmity between the animals and birds there either. Everyone simply plays with each other.

Each and every mantra of the Janmangal is divine. The locks within the hearts of those who listen to or read this discourse are let loose. Their hearts become illuminated. Such is the power of this discourse. This mantra is worth understanding. If one identifies with it, he attains liberation in this very life. We are daily witnessing that one’s own parent, sons and brothers are taken to court. We then think that what Satsang have they digested upon? They persist in arguments for land and legacy. If they have digested anything in Satsang, how would one’s own brother be taken to court? Subsequently, they would agree to a decision made by a third person. However, why do these two brothers not have the power to sit together and compromise? For conditions like this, this particular mantra is very inspiring. When dialogues like ‘this is mine’ and ‘this is yours’ begins, quarrels occur.

‘This is mine’ and ‘this is yours’ are two blades in a pair of scissors. It cuts a line through the intact relationships of two brothers. The function of a pair of scissors is never to sew. Between two brothers there may be tough threads of affection and compassion; however, when the two blades of ‘mine’ and ‘yours’ begin to function, immediately, the relationship between the two brothers are slit open. Differences of opinions arise. To maintain the connection between blood-relations and to maintain the connection between devotees is a wise person’s nature.

There were two brothers. They would bond well and sit together to eat. If one brother does not arrive home, the other would wait for him. Due to some social dealing, a difference in opinion arose. In the calculation of money, they began to quarrel. When the two brothers would see each other, they would glance elsewhere and proceed forward but would not talk. One day, they were discussing with each other, “You are intimidating me.” The younger brother said, “You are intimidating me.” Like this, they bickered and went home. When the tension in the mind diminished the elder brother thought, ‘whatever the situation, I am still the eldest. He is my younger brother. What big significance would it make if he spoke a few words?

He has permanently caught the words that I have spoken to him. Thus, I should tolerate it. It is not pleasant to argue with my younger brother. As a devotee, this will put me to shame. The world will say that, ‘These Swaminarayan brothers are ceaselessly quarreling.’ This is a disgraceful situation. If I threaten him as being his big brother, my prominence is not worth anything.’ Like this, all night he was regretting his acts. Therefore he did not get any sleep. ‘What a great shame to my speech!’ ‘Whatever else happens, I do not care, but my Ishtadev will not be pleased upon me.’ He spent the entire night crying. He woke up early the next morning, bathed and sat to perform Mansi Puja. He humbly prayed to Prabhu, “Oh Prabhu! You have stated that, ‘One should not threaten any living entity.’ Today I have threatened my younger brother. I have lost my patience and caused mischief. Now, oh Prabhu, enlighten me with the knowledge that none shall be grief-stricken or have to shed tears because of me.” Saying this, his eyes were full with tears. Bhagwan heard the sound of the heartfelt prayer and immediately approached his devotee. He put his hand on his devotee’s head. “Oh! Who has put their hand on my head all of a sudden?” As he took a look, he gained Darshan of Purshotam Narayan. The devotee touched his head upon Shree Hari’s feet and performed Dandvat Pranam.

“I DO NOT LIKE THIS Dudh-pak.”

The devotee at once got up and offered a seat to Prabhu. He offered Dudh-pak to Prabhu. Prabhu said, “Oh Bhagat! One should not eat alone. Go! Call your younger brother! We shall all sit together and eat.” The elder brother ran to his young brother’s house. “Brother! Come to my home. Shreeji Maharaj is there and is calling you.” The young brother was fuming that, ‘From today I shall not step foot in my brother’s home but today, Bhagwan is calling me so I should certainly go.’ Without delay, he arrived at his brother’s home.

Shreeji Maharaj sat both brothers beside each other and said, “Both of you are quarreling as brothers which does not suit a devotee. I do not like this Dudh-pak. I like the food made by those who have unity in the house, who have love, who do not have differences in their opinions. Why are you producing poisonous enmity between each other, despite possessing such knowledge? Why are you planting the seeds of enmity in such small issues? You are My devotees. You are wearing a Kanthi around your neck. You have a Tilak Chandlo marked on your forehead. You perform worship and You have Shree Hari’s divine name in your mouth. You go to gain darshan in the Temple every morning and evening. You are offering gifts and donations for religious purposes, yet you are arguing which does not suit a devotee.”

The elder brother began to shed tears. “Oh Maharaj! It is my fault. We shall not do anything like this any longer. We will unite with each other just as the surface line of water.” Witnessing the elder brother crying, the younger brother held onto his elder brother’s legs. “Oh big brother! It is my fault. Do not cry. Please forgive me. From today, I shall not talk too much or too less.” Saying this, he embraced his big brother closely and touched his feet.

Shreeji Maharaj said, “Whatever happened has happened. Do not cry any longer. Let us all sit together and eat.” They all ate sitting together. Prabhu is ‘Ajaatavairi’ and is giving advice to His devotees that, “You also should not build poisonous enmity towards anyone.” Enmity is extremely awful. Prabhu does not consume the food made in the house where there is enmity. Prabhu accepts the food wherever there is Satvik reality.

There are many people who utter sinful words against Shreeji Maharaj, yet Shreeji Maharaj has not kept any enmity nature towards anyone; hence, He is ‘Ajatavairi’.

MANTRA (95) AUM SHREE NIR-LOBHAY NAMAH

One who is not (‘nir’) avaricious (‘lobh’)

Shatanand Swami is paying respectful obeisances to Shree Hari. “Oh Prabhu! You are not greedy.” Bhagwan is generous. However, when He gives, He gives in accordance to the person’s suitability. If an ignorant person is not worthy, Bhagwan takes back the prosperity that the ignorant person possesses. This is a beautiful enlightening mantra. When a mother shares out food and three of her sons are seated, she would not share out equal amount of food. The mother does not possess greed in her mind, but she would share out food according to the sons’ suitability.

She would offer four ladus to her twenty-four year old son. She would offer two ladus to her twelve year old son. She would offer one ladu to her five year old son.

The reason why she offers them more or less is because she knows only how much they can eat; hence she gives that certain amount of food. A mother is not greedy but is generous. However, if she gives an additional amount to her two year old son, her child would not be able to eat it. Pointlessly, food will go to waste. Prabhu gives items after long thought. Bhagwan is exceptionally magnificent. As an exchange of a datan (a margoa stick used for brushing the teeth), He grants final liberation. As an exchange to water, He grants final liberation. He grants liberation to even one who offers a false coconut unto His lotus feet and takes him to His divine Akshardham. Bhagwan is much more vigilant than us. He is extremely intelligent.

Bhagwan NarNarayan Dev is practicing penance in Badrikashram. One time, Paramanand Swami asked a question, “Bhagwan is practicing penance in Badrikashram, yet why are not all the human beings on this earth walking on the path of righteousness? Why are they not following Satsang?” Bhagwan then said, “Bhagwan is performing penance for the excellence of His devotees but not for the non-devotees. He is granting liberation to His dear devotees. The non-devotees do not achieve liberation.”

The end wires of the non-devotees are not attached with Bhagwan, hence no current is passed. If the electrical board is joined with the electrical wires, light occurs. If the ends are not joined, light does not emerge. The wires of those who are connected with Bhagwan are touched with Bhagwan. Those devotees get the fruits of penance. Not all achieve the fruits as they are not worthy for the achievements. The seeds of donation and fruitful acts are been planted in the soil of righteousness.

If you keep the ends attached with Bhagwan, maybe if there are any defects in your life, any imperfections or any deficiencies, with Bhagwan’s compassionate vision, He will make your life powerful. With that, we can make our mind faithfully firm.

Bhagwan is non-avaricious. He is giving all according to their suitability. When the four-handed Shree Hari gives the soul, it will not be able to grasp it well and it will not be aware of where all this is coming from. Thereafter, if one utilises it well, his wealth and prosperity lasts and if he does not utilise it in a favourable way, he may even take it back. Prabhu is certainly compassionate. However, He does not give to the unworthy.

A father gives his deserving son his own earnings. He does not give to the undeserving ones.
He, who has achieved, yet is not fulfilled, is greedy. His desires enhance ceaselessly. If one thinks about riches day and night, how does he become capable of remembering Bhagwan? Bhagwan is saying, ‘If you turn over the word ‘lo-bha’ (avarice), what word would it make? ‘bha-lo’ (courteous). Be courteous.’ Utilise money in a beneficial advantageous manner. We think that we are using money for righteous acts. In true reality, this is not the case. It is actually been sowed in the soil of righteousness. The sowed will be reaped, hence Bhagwan will grant an infinite amount. If we sow in land, it provides infinite more, so why would Bhagwan not provide an infinite amount?

In worldly life and its activities, in mutual social dealings and in marriage ceremonies, one would wander around broad-mindedly and when he wants to serve Shree Hari, he presents only ten rupees in the donation box. bije vaavre chhe ghanu dhan, tya to mokdu raakhe chhe man Everywhere else, he would twist his moustache and walk around and when he wants to serve Bhagwan, he would make an excuse that, ‘Look how spoilt the present age and time is. There seems to be no end to the dearness allowance.’ He would feed the worldly souls very well in festive ceremonies, have parties, throw away money, yet he would not feed Saints, Brahmans or the needy. This is an opportunity. We feed many relatives, our beloved ones and friends, but all of them eat and walk away. However, only the blessed ones get the opportunity to feed those who have Bhagwan residing in their hearts. Only the blessed ones get the opportunity to feed the holy mother cows who have three hundred-and-thirty million Deities residing within them.

Wealth becomes Satvik. If we take out a share from our earnings for Bhagwan, that wealth will flourish our lives up with bliss. Just as a mother takes care of her child, the Satvik Mother Laxmiji, will abundantly take care of us.

One should be content with what has been given. To be content is the core virtue. A man would have plentiful wealth or knowledge, but if he does not have contentment, he will remain in the same shoes as a penurious person. One without satisfaction stays roaming around like a beggar. You think about it. Who achieves every satisfaction according to the desires in the mind? No body. The mind eternally hangs about unsatisfied and keeps on running about. This is because it is all dependant on Bhagwan. Therefore, one should feel content with all that is gained through striving. One should not falsely express distress and grief.

So, what is known to be contentment? It is essential to precisely understand the statement stated in the Shrimad Bhagvat. To possess abundances of wealth and to be satisfied with the interest of the money, is not called contentment.

yaavat mriyet jatharam, taavatsvatvam hi dehinah l adhikam yo abhimanyet, sa steno dand maharti ll

The amount of wealth needed up until one’s time of death, is one’s own wealth. However, those who store more than necessary and show ego that, ‘I possess such large sum of money’, is known to be a thief of a Deity and he is certainly worthy of severe punishment.

Does this then mean that one should not own an increased amount of wealth? The answer to this is that within the Vasudev Mahatmya, stating the rules for the Vaishyas (the agricultural and the commercial class), it is noted that no matter how much earnings they make, the Vaishya class should be discontented, meaning, until this mortal body is in good condition, one should continuously earn but the profit of the earnings should be used for Deities, sacred cows, the needy, the sick people or living animals. However, one who sits with satisfaction of his profit is never known to be satisfied. In fact, he is known to be inactive.

Hence, one should donate 10-20% of ones income to Bhagwan. That is the key act of righteousness for the Vaishya class.

Bhagwan is non-avaricious Himself and is offering advice to his staunched devotees that one should not be extremely wasteful and should not be extremely greedy. He should donate according to his own potency.

MANTRA (96) AUM SHREE MAHA-PURUSHAY NAMAH

One who possesses all qualities of great (‘Maha’) reputable men (‘Purush’)

Shatanand Swami is paying respectful obeisances to Shree Hari. “Oh Prabhu! You are a ‘Maha-Purush’ (a great reputable Man). Because they devote upon You, Rushis and Munis are also known to be Maha-Purush. You are more of a superior Maha-Purush than them.”

In one’s bodily city, the animate power is of the souls. Prabhu, the most reputable Man, is residing within that soul. Through the illumination of this great reputable Man, Shree Hari, the soul is illuminated. Parmatma resides within every living entity. Such Maha-Purush (Shree Hari) resides within all souls, animals and living entities. The soul resides within one mere city, whereas Parmatma resides within every city.

- ghat ghat me praan, khaali ghat nahi koi

The soul is certainly animate. However, Parmatma is the controller of the animates. ‘Maha’ means a Great Man. Purshotam is known to be a Great Man.

“Oh Prabhu! You are greater than the Yogis. You are even greater than those practicing penance. You are even greater than this entire universe. We bow down to such Maha-Purush, Shree Swaminarayan Bhagwan. The souls of many millions of universes are folding their hands before You. Those who do not bow down humbly in front of others are certainly bowing down to You.” If we hand over our hands to such Maha-Purush, our life becomes fortunate. Our life becomes cared for.

- dinanath dayaalu natvar haath maaro muksho maa, haath maaro muksho maa,
  - daas saaru chuksho maa... dinanath... aa bhavsaagare bhagwan hu bhulo padyo chhu,
  - chaud lok nivaasi chapdaa, kaant aa tak chuksho maa... dinanath...
  - aadhaar prabhu ek aapno, saadhan vishe samju nahi hu,
  - bhakti tamaari chaahu chhu, ghanshyam naam chuksho maa.. dinanath..

When does Bhagwan hold our hands? If our heart is pure, if our mind, knowledge consciousness and tendency is pure, if they are full of good-quality virtues and become worthy of the knowledge of the soul, only then, Prabhu holds our hands. If our mind is polluted, if it raises inapt thoughts and the heart overflows with ego, Bhagwan does not hold our hands. If intense desires for worldly objects are playing within our minds, Bhagwan does not hold our hands.

FROM A HUMAN BODY, HE HAD TO BECOME AN ANIMAL.

There was one attendant of Shree Hari. He would travel from village to village with Shreeji Maharaj and serve Him. He would stand behind Shree Hari as His attendant. He would take great care of Shree Maharaj’s mojdis’ (a type of light, embroidered pair of shoes). In such a manner, he would serve. He is gaining daily Darshan of Shreeji Maharaj Himself, yet the desire for lust is not fading away from within his heart. When female devotees approach Shreeji Maharaj for His Darshan, this attendant would stare at them with a gazed vision. Just think. Through a human body, he was achieving Darshan of Shreeji Maharaj. The soul is eternally bathing within the River Ganga of knowledge, he was listening to holy discourses and singing Kirtans, yet the desire for females did not leave his heart. Some time went by and his lifespan came to an end. He became a horse in his next birth. The soul who had climbed high, had fallen down. He had to become a four-legged animal from a human birth. Hence, remain awakened.

The horse became older. Through the fruits of his service, He achieved Darshan of Bhagwan. The owner of the horse brought it into Dada Khachar’s royal court. The horse was, without a single wink, staring at Bhagwan. In its heart, the horse came to know that in its past birth it was Shreeji Maharaj’s attendant. Its desire for females did not fade away; hence, it has taken birth as a horse. From its eyes, tears began to flow.

Bhagwan indeed knows everything. Bhagwan has the knowledge of all the thousands and millions of previous births of all. Thus, he announced in the assembly, “Dear devotees! Do you recognise this horse?” The devotees answered, “No, oh Prabhu! How could we know?” Swaminarayan Bhagwan continued, “This was my attendant. His desire of lust did not disappear; therefore, he has become a horse. So be aware. Such lustful desires have twisted the lives of the most capable ones.” In this manner, if desires for worldly objects remain, Bhagwan will not hold our hands. Bhagwan does not take such rotten, foul-smelling souls to His Akshardham.

vande maha purush! te charan-aarvindam

(Many respectful bowings to the lotus-like feet of our Ishtadev, who is the greatest Maha-Purush)

MANTRA (97) AUM SHREE ATMADAY NAMEH

One who surrenders Himself to faithful single-minded devotees

Shatanand Swami is paying respectful obeisances to Shree Hari. “Oh Prabhu! If You become pleased, You give away Your soul. Some donate money, gold, land or their daughters. However, no one donates their own soul. But Your nature is such that if You become pleased, You respectively become an Attendant of Your devotees, even though You are the most venerable. Oh Prabhu! You give Yourself away.

You do as Your devotees say! You become dependant to Your devotees.” Bhagwan remained as King Bali’s gate-keeper. He would guard the deep stratum of the earth. Thereafter, Laxmiji arrived and tied a rakhdi (a thread tied by a sister around a brother’s wrist with a view to protection against misfortune) around King Bali’s wrist. King Bali said, “Dear Sister, You tied a rakhdi on me, hence, ask for all You yearn for and I shall give.” Laxmiji said, “I am not craving for any objects. I do not desire for any gold or silver. I do not desire any clothes or ornaments.” “So what do you desire?” Laxmiji answered, “This Person who is guarding this city of yours, the One who we perceive as a Soldier…” King Bali questioned, “How is He related to You?” “He is My Companion, Narayan.” King Bali said, “You both are the same. One came and seized away my Kingdom and now one has come to take away Narayan? Okay, You take Him.” Bhagwan is compassionate in this manner. He gives Himself away to His devotees. He becomes their Attendant.

Bhagwan surrenders upon His devotees.

Bhagwan became pleased on Sakhubai. Therefore, He disguised Himself as Sakhubai and carried out the duties in the house. He would go to fill water. He would cover His face and cook food in the house. He would churn the butter milk. Sakhubai’s mother-in-law would take out the churned liquid curds. The mother-in-law thinks that, ‘What if She (Shreeji Maharaj) eats the butter? This is ironic as Bhagwan admired the taste of butter. He would sweep the rubbish but would not let out the secret that He was Bhagwan. Sakhubai was peacefully travelling on pilgrimage and Bhagwan, on the other hand, was carrying out her household chores. Think how highly great He is; He is the King of this entire universe and yet is carrying out other’s chores. He would massage Sakhubai’s mother-in-law’s feet. He would make such delicious food that Sakhubai’s mother and father-in-law would become extremely delighted. For One who feeds upon the fifty-six items, to cook for others, is not ordinary but is extraordinary. Bhagwan is compassionate in such a manner. Bhagwan surrenders upon His devotees.

He would ask for Ladubaa and Jivubaa’s permission. “Baa! Today, if you give permission, can I proceed to Vadtal?" One who commands all the Deities is asking for Ladubaa’s permission. When Ramchandraji Bhagwan went to Janakpuri, if He wanted to go to pick flowers, He would ask for His Guru Vashishth’s permission. Vashishth would say, “Go.” Only then, He would go to pick flowers. He walks through the commands of His devotees.

Prabhu, to Whom Brahma and other Deities bow down and asks for alms, becomes an Attendant in His devotees presence. The Gopees say, “Keshav! Dance before us.” Bhagwan never danced for His hunger for butter. He would dance for hunger for affection. Otherwise, Nandbava (Krushna Bhagwan’s father) had plenty of butter in his home. Nine-hundred thousand holy cows were giving milk in his home. Hence, there was no shortage of butter. Bhagwan is exceptionally passionate and loving that He Himself pulls the minds of His own devotees.

On the full moon day of the month of Aaso at night, Bhagwan played Raas in Vrundavan. At that time, the Gopees had a natural feeling of vanity that, ‘Prabhu is playing Raas with us. Look how dear we are to Bhagwan!’ Instantly, Bhagwan walked away from there. Radhikaji found out about this. Thus, she walked along with Bhagwan. Proceeding forward, she became exhausted. Radhikaji said, “Keshav! I’ve become exhausted. Lift me on Your shoulders.” Bhagwan lifted Radhikaji on His shoulders and continue forward. Radhikaji had vanity that, ‘There is no one as smart as me. Oh how favourite and dear I am to Bhagwan that Bhagwan has lifted me on His shoulders.’ Bhagwan thought, ‘All this time, Radhikaji was as light as a flower. However, with the emergence of ego, she has become heavy-weighted.’ Bhagwan is not fond of even a fraction of ego.

Hence, Bhagwan said, “Radhikaji! Hold the branch of the tree for a second, I have been pricked by a thorn.” Radhikaji held onto the branch. From there, Bhagwan disappeared. Radhikaji was kept hanging on the branch of the tree. Then the Gopees came to help her down. The key moral of this is that Bhagwan is compassionate. If the devotees say, ‘Oh Prabhu! Consume this,’ He would consume it. ‘Oh Prabhu! Play with us’ and He would play.

Dada Khachar said, “Oh Maharaj! I will only marry again on one condition. If You come with me in the marriage ceremony.” Prabhu replied, “As you say. I am prepared.”

Dada Khachar sat on the chariot with leisure and Prabhu rode the chariot. He became an Attendant. Bhagwan is compassionate. He would set out to give food. He would ride a chariot. He would disguise as a Sister-in-law in a house. He would disguise Himself as a Son and serve. He would also disguise as an Attendant and massage His devotees’ feet. He is the Master of all, yet He becomes an Attendant. He takes all the responsibilities of His devotees’ lives in His own hands. This is nothing small or insignificant. It is not simple to become someone’s attendant. To serve others is not a simple act. Bhagwan is compassionate; hence He is able to carry out such acts.

Mantra (98) Aum Shree Akhanditarsha-Maryadayanama Namah

One who follows the rules tied for Rushis and Munis

Shatanand Swami is paying respectful obeisances to Shree Hari. “Oh Prabhu! You have eternally upheld reverence. You have eternally followed the rules tied for the Rushis and Munis. You act according to the rules of the Rushis and Munis, maintaining the tradition. When Bhagwan Purshotam Narayan begins a holy discourse, He would firstly establish Ganpatiji and Vishnu. Is it a necessity for Bhagwan to install Ganpatiji and Hanumanji? However, in order to maintain the tradition, He is following this rule.

Bhagwan Swaminarayan has carefully nurtured the Aarya civilisation. Talk upon talk, He has kept Vyas Bhagwan’s theories as proof. Bhagwan has protected the Aarya civilisation. Bhagwan has Himself carried out the ceremonial offerings (shradh) to His Mother and Father and has taught us that, ‘You should also maintain the reverence of civilisation.’ Reverence is an act of non-attachment. One should remain in one’s own modesty, meaning one should strictly follow the rules of righteousness. One should never utter hateful words.

One should not speak such where the arrows of untruth, false, bitter words shoot at someone’s chest. Innumerable devotees go to Temple and sing Kirtans, which is a good deed. One should, without doubt sing. However, when sitting in the car, one would play English or Hindi music and sing along with it. This does not mean that he has uttered righteous words. If one does not know how to speak, it is ok. However, one should not speak and perform foolishly.

Bhagwan has protected the Aarya tradition. Purshotam Narayan never disobedies modesty. It does not mean that if Krushna Bhagwan has put aside modesty that He has disobeyed it. One should understand that Bhagwan has broadened His Leelas. He has played and made His devotees content. Bhagwan is akin to fire. Termites do not climb on fire. Similarly, faults do not touch Prabhu. If you perceive the assemblage in Ramchandraji Bhagwan’s presence, the assembly would be seated with extreme modesty. Firstly a seat for Bhagwan, then of the Gurus, then of judges and the chief executives of the royal state, then of ministers and behind them, rulers would be seated. In the front, guards would be standing. The assemblage would be ever so attractive just as a garden full of roses, daisies and tulips! Like such gardens, the assemblages would be beautifully organised.

MODESTY IS AN INDIVIDUAL’S ORNAMENT.

What are Bhagwan Swaminarayan’s assemblies like? Shreeji Maharaj would be seated on a thick mattress and bolster. Then celibacies would be seated. Following them, Saints would be seated. Thereafter, in accordance to their divisions, devotees would be seated. On one side, female devotees would be seated with modesty. Bhagwan has preserved such reverence. Shreeji Maharaj has preserved modesty in such a way that if Shreeji Maharaj is engaged in a playful talk and if Muktanand Swami approaches, He becomes quiet. Shreeji Maharaj used to highly respect Muktanand Swami. The chaste wife of Ram Bhagwan, Sitaji, also followed modesty in an appropriate manner. The exile to the forest was given to Ram Bhagwan. Yet Sitaji headed for the forest with Her companion. She served Prabhu with extreme care. She would be a part of Her husband’s sorrow. She would be a part of Her Husband’s joy. She has never taken a step back for Her bliss only. She has never uttered bad words about Bhagwan. Not to utter negative words to anyone is also a type of modesty.

If you consider Shree Krushna Bhagwan’s Leelas, you will discover them to be extraordinary. Bhagwan would eat His youthful friend’s leftover food. He has wandered in the forest alone with the Gopees. Whether His youthful friends climb unto Prabhu’s back and bring down the clay pot from above and whether the same Prabhu plays the melodious flute and sometimes blows a conch in a battle field; Bhagwan’s Leelas are indeed conducive to happiness and prosperity.

Bhagwan Swaminarayan would feed Saints with various sweets. He would feed them with Dudh-pak. He would thereafter return them back to modesty. “Dear Saints! Now observe the vow where you should eat no tasty food. Dear Saints! You should now consume the amount of food equal to the size of a single lemon.” In this manner, He would feed them with many Indian sweets and satisfy them, but then would bring them back to their original modesty. Witness the modesty he has followed and then the way He has spread it in this holy Swaminarayan fellowship. In the festival of colour, He would play with Saints and celibates. Bhagwan would throw powdered colour upon Saints. Saints would throw powdered colour upon Bhagwan. However, there is no presence of females with Saints and celibates. Females would play Raas with females. Males would play with males. He has forever maintained the tradition of the past Rushis. He has maintained reverence to a great extent.

The Foundation of Satsang is Modesty.

_Bhagwan Swaminarayan_ constantly held a handkerchief in his hands. When he would laugh, he would cover his mouth with a handkerchief and laugh thereafter. When he would sneeze, he would cover his mouth. All these _leelas_ are performed to teach us.

chink jyaare aave re, tyaare rumaal laine, chink j khaay re, mukh par aado daine, ramuj aani re, hase ati ghanshyam, mukh par aado re, rumaal lai sukh dhaam.

The foundation of _Satsang_ is modesty. There are many impolite individuals who would sneeze facing another individual and yawn loudly. One should not yawn in front of others. One should cover his mouth with a handkerchief or with the hand and then yawn. However, one should not yawn with his mouth revealed. Even this is one kind of respect. In this day and age, a father cannot say anything to his own son. Even if the son is walking on the wrong path, the father is unable to give him true knowledge. If the father does give him advice, the son would let out an enraged roar. On the contrary, he would threaten his father and sit him down quietly. “Sit there silently! Your prattling has increased.” He would utter such harsh words. In the past, when a father would tell his son off in the presence of five to twenty-five people, the son would not even utter back a word. Instead, he would bow down to his father and accept his sayings. Today, when a father wishes to say something to his son, he would have to think deeply. When a father wishes to say something to his daughter-in-law, he would have to think deeply. When a _Guru_ wishes to say something to his disciple, he would have to think deeply. ‘What will he say? If this causes contradictions, it will result to differences in opinions.’

The essence of this _mantra_ is that one should act strictly according to the modesty that the past _Rushis_ and _Munis_ have established and at the same time, should engage in the devotion of _Prabhu._

MANTRA (99)

_Aum Shree Vyas-sidhant-bodhakay Namah_

_The Sermoniser_ (‘bodhak’) of _Vyas Bhagwan’s_ theories (‘sidhant’)

_Shatanand Swami_ is paying respectful obeisances to _Shree Hari_. “Oh _Prabhu_! You are the Sermoniser of _Vyas Bhagwan’s_ theories.” _Bhagwan_ has brought light into _Vyas Bhagwan’s_ theories. _Vyas Bhagwan_, the Spreader of modesty is Himself the Incarnation of spiritual knowledge. He is the Enlightener of spiritual knowledge. _Vyas Bhagwan_ is the spiritual Preceptor of all spiritual preceptors. Our spiritual preceptors have created Scriptures using _Vyas Bhagwan’s_ theories. If _Vyas Bhagwan’s_ did not take birth in this country, this country would have drowned in the darkness of ignorance!

_Bhagwan Swaminarayan_ is guiding us; however, He is maintaining the authority of _Vyas Bhagwan’s_ theories and enlightening us. He has not offered a single piece of advice which opposes _Vyas Bhagwan’s_ theories. Within the _Vachanamrut_, He has mutually enlightened many with answers. These answers have been given according to _Vyas Bhagwan’s_ words. Not a single point has been told which is outside the boundaries of _Vyas Bhagwan’s_ words. Moreover, when others would speak on the contrary, _Shreeji Maharaj_ had often said that, ‘I have full trust upon _Vyas Bhagwan’s_ words. If you explain your matter linking to His theories, I will honour it. However, I will not honour the words which are crossing over the boundaries of _Vyas Bhagwan’s_ theories.’ The _Vachanamrut_ highlights the verses of the _Shreemad Bhagvat_ and _Bhagvat Gita._

_Bhagwan_ created the _Veds_, but _Rushis_ were incapable of understanding them. Some spiritual preceptors would state that _Bhagwan_ is with form and some would state that _Bhagwan_ is without form. Some would state that _Bhagwan_ does not possess any attributes and some would say that Bhagwan does possess attributes. In this manner, the spiritual preceptors became perplexed amongst themselves in which they were powerless to decide which the true path was. They would all insist amongst themselves. Subsequently, Vyas Bhagwan demonstrated to them clearly that Bhagwan is devoid of an illusive form. He does not possess a worldly human body; hence He is known to be without form. However, Bhagwan has a divine form, hence Bhagwan is forever known to be with form.

If Vyas Bhagwan did not descend upon this earth, the Aarya civilisation of Mother India would have been destructed. This country would have fallen in the deep hole of ignorance. Vyas Bhagwan is an Incarnation of spiritual knowledge. Vyas Bhagwan divided the Vedas in two. One named Purva Mimasa and the second named Uttar Mimasa. The Purva Mimasa consists of twelve chapters. This section deals with ‘karma-kaand’ (religious rites and ceremonies). The Uttar Mimasa also consists of twelve chapters. This section deals with the fruits achieved when a man carries out certain deeds. However, at the end of the deeds, there is no other solution to final liberation other than affection upon Bhagwan’s lotus-like feet.

Vyas Bhagwan, subsequently, created the Brahmasutra. This is also known as Vyassutra, which Bhagwan Swaminarayan is extremely fond of. He honoured the eight sacred Scriptures. Why did He choose the Vyassutra? The reason being is that within this, the issues of righteousness have been precisely clarified and Bhagwan Narayan is shown to be the Almighty Supreme Being. Indra is indeed the Master of Svarglok, Brahma is indeed the Master of Brahmlok; however, the Master of innumerable universes is the One and Only Narayan. Hence, Prabhu is known to be the All-doer.

To believe others, other than Bhagwan as being the all Doer, is the highest level of ignorance. Bhagwan has stated in the Vachanamrut that, ‘This talk of essence can be found in all the sacred Scriptures.’ Bhagwan is giving credit to Vyas Bhagwan’s sayings. Therefore, everyone should indeed follow according to this tradition. Our Vaidik faith is surviving upon Vyas Bhagwan’s words. Swaminarayan Bhagwan is saying, “I have full faith upon Vyas Bhagwan’s words.”

MANTRA (100) AUM SHREE MANO-NIGRAHA-YUKTI-GNAY NAMAH

One who has the powerful skill (‘yukti’) to control (‘nigraha’) His mind (‘man’)

Shatanand Swami is paying respectful obeisances to Shree Hari. “Oh Prabhu! You are the Knower of the skills needed to control the mind. You are the Knower of the necessary skills required to conquer the mind. You know how to keep the mind under control.” One should engage one’s mind in Bhagwan’s divine form. This is simply the control of the mind. One has to decorate the daughter i.e. the faculty, with virtuous ornaments, build firm faith and marry her to Prabhu.

When a daughter resides within her mother’s home, she is known to be unmarried. When she marries, she is known to be a woman whose husband is alive. However, she is not recognised to be well-adorned. She is identified as well-adorned only when she has an embryo within her womb. When a seed is planted in her womb, she is called a well-adorned woman. It is an essential action for Bhagwan’s devotees to become well-adorned. When the womb of faith becomes planted within one’s heart, through this, the fruits of devotion develop.

Just as a woman carefully cares for her own womb, Bhagwan’s staunched devotees should also, in the same manner, care for their inner self so that the inner enemies do not influence them. He should be vigilant that the liquid in the womb of faith does not discharge. Do not keep the faculty unmarried. Our Saints have married their faculty with Prabhu.

mune kidhi sohaagan kaan, dosh na joyaa re l tame gun saagar gopal, muj par mohyaa re ll

Those who have firm faith upon Bhagwan have married the soul’s companion. In true reality, she is married. She is eternally wedded.
One should unite his mind and tightly entangle his mind into Bhagwan’s Leelas. He should not allow the opportunity for sleep to develop. The core intention of this mantra is that one should return the unstable mind from the various worldly objects. It is a tremendously huge task to control the mind. This does not mean that it cannot be controlled. When you enter a shop, your mind is been controlled and you spend money in an efficient manner. You carefully pay attention that you do not make any mistakes. When you count money, why does the mind not roam around here and there? You know that if the mind scurries away, the sum of the calculation will be calculated as a more or less amount than its original sum. When the mind is controlled, only then money can be calculated fully and accurately. One should carve Bhagwan’s divine form in his heart.

The mind certainly becomes controlled in worldly affairs, but the mind cannot be promptly controlled in Bhagwan. If the attachment in worldly objects is discharged and destroyed, the mind can definitely be controlled in Prabhu. The mind can be controlled by becoming involved in Satsang. Bhagwan has stated in the Vachanamrut that, ‘The mind cannot be controlled merely by observing fasts. The mind cannot be controlled merely through knowledge of the soul. When these two are performed mutually, then the inner enemies will be conquered.’ The discourse of how to conquer the mind is stated in the Vachanamrut. If one acts upon the solutions, the mind will be conquered.

The tool for conquering the mind is the nine types of Bhakti (the nine types of devotion: 1. listening to holy Scriptures and talks in praise of Bhagwan, 2. singing devotional Kirtans, 3. remembering and reciting the divine names of Bhagwan, 4. serving at the lotus-like feet of Shree Hari, 5. worshiping Bhagwan, 6. paying homage to Prabhu, 7. serving Prabhu like an attendant, 8. cultivating comradeship with Shree Hari, 9. completely surrendering one’s self unto Prabhu). One should not remain idle without engaging in devotion. Through the eyes, one should contemplate upon Bhagwan and carve Bhagwan’s divine form in his heart. Through the nose, one should smell the aroma of the flowers that have been offered to Bhagwan and carve Bhagwan’s divine form in his heart. Through speech, one should sing Kirtans and dhuns and carve Bhagwan’s divine form in his heart. Through the ears, one should listen to holy discourses and narrations and carve Bhagwan’s divine form in his heart. Through the mouth, one should sing Bhagwan’s heavenly virtues and carve Bhagwan’s divine form in his heart. One should have association with Bhagwan through mind, intelligence, consciousness and other senses.

I am embracing Bhagwan with both hands. One should carve Him in his heart through touch. In this way, meditating upon Bhagwan calms down all stained thoughts and the control of the mind can be aimed upon Bhagwan. It is the habit of the mind that it yearns to do exactly as it wishes. There is no such thing as bliss or sorrow in this world. If what the mind prefers happens, one experiences happiness. If what the mind does not prefer happens, one experiences sorrow.

Those who have conquered the mind have conquered the world. They have defeated the entire universe.

To defeat the unsteady mind, to stable it is not a game which children play. To seize the mind is particularly complex. When the wind blows, an intense wind storm raises clouds of dust and someone says, “I can steady the wind”, how will this happen? It is an impossible act. In your home, if a fan is on, only if you switch the fan off, the wind will become steady. However, no individual is able to steady the blowing wind on earth. In the same manner, to steady the mind is an incredibly tough task. Muktanand Swami has noted this matter down:-
The leaf of a Peepal tree, the cloth of a flag, the lightning of the sky and the ears of an elephant never remain stable. In the same way, Muktanand Swami is saying that the mind does not remain steady for even a split second.

Not only is the mind unsteady, but after a while, it can even make one restless and leave him perplexed. It is as stubborn as a child. If it becomes stubborn, it cannot understand. Forcefully, it pulls the soul into illusion. With practice, the mind can become controlled. The mind is like a ghost. When it becomes free, it will be ready to eat the soul. Hence, one should bond the mind with Bhagwan’s divine form. One should ceaselessly recall the Leelas of Bhagwan. One should sing and learn Kirtans. Like such, one should keep the mind engaged in the nine types of devotion. This is called practice.

With eternal practice of deep thinking, the mind can be conquered and one experiences tranquility. Have control over the mind but do not let the mind control you. Otherwise, it will pull you towards disorderly thoughts. If one controls the mind in Bhagwan, what is the result? That individual becomes rescued from the punishment of the Yamduts. Let us move onto the next mantra and understand it properly.

MANTRA (101) AUM SHREE YAMDUT-VIMOCHAKAY NAMAH

One who releases (‘vimoch’) devotees from the Yamduts

Shatanand Swami is paying respectful obeisances to Shree Hari. “Oh Prabhu! You are the Saviour of souls from the Yamduts. Those who surrender unto Your lotus-like feet are saved by You from the beatings of the Yamduts. Other than that, You let the sinful souls be punished well.” Only those who recite Shree Hari’s divine name can be rescued from the beatings of the Yamduts.

If your forehead is completely dry, if you have not marked a Tilak-chaandlo on it, and if you fail to wear a Kanthi of Tulsi around your neck, the Yamduts think that this is a beast without an owner. They will seize such souls and take them to hell. Those who consume uneatable food and consume liquor, those who eat grains on the sacred days of Ekadashi, commit adultery, steal, afflict their parents, ruin the lives of Saints and Brahmans, insult, torment the poor without reason and give pain to souls and creatures are taken to hell by the Yamduts and are punished. At that time, the sinner screams outrageously. It wails. ‘Save me! Save me!’ However, who will come to save him?

aavenge jam aavenge, hari bhajan vinaa jam aavenge, harijan dehdkhe hasi karat vaanke, mukhme aag jaraavenge... hari...
```

Many people are obstinate. On talk upon talk, they would insult Saints and devotees. Insults climb up to their mouths. Be careful! Committed acts will have to be suffered. They will insert burning coals in their mouths. Then they will realise!

kirtan katha sune nahi taake, shravan me sisaa tharaavenge... hari...

If one does not listen to holy discourses, then there is no problem. However, when Saints are reading and one insults them, Yamduts will pour sizzling lead in his ears. At that moment, just as a fish struggles hopelessly without water, the soul will also struggle hopelessly for escape. He could not bear the beatings of the Yamduts.

Shobharam and Pitambar were blood-related brothers. However, not all brothers are the same. Shobharam would speak as he wants in any manner. When brother Pitambar would go to associate with Saints, Shobharam would quarrel with him. “Why did you go to those imprudent Saints? Will those Saints offer you a job or something? What if you had come to the farm to do farming instead? You are roaming around like a big devotee with marks of Tilak Chandlo and spots on your forehead. Leave such hypocrisy! They gained no food so they became mendicants. What are you achieving by approaching them? You will suffer misery for no reason.” He would abuse devotees to a great extent. He would offend Saints and followers of Shree Hari. It becomes such a habit that if he does not insult, he does not like the taste of the chappatis in his plate.

On one occasion, Saints met him. The Saints said, “Be wise and devote upon Shree Hari. Forsake the insulting otherwise you will end up in hell and get beaten.” Shobharam answered, “I’ve seen your hell! All that is nothing. You have all gathered together and raised pretense. You are evasively frightening others.” The Saints glanced at him and sent him to hell. The Yamduts there grabbed hold of him. “Oh Sinner!!! You are insulting Shree Hari’s disciples?!” Saying this, with a loud thundering sound, they beat him five to ten times. The sinner would scream loudly. “Let me free! I will not commit such acts anymore! Leave me!” The Yamduts shouted, “Why should we let you free? We have gripped you well.” Uttering such, they would push and punch him.

They beat him well. They weakened all his joints. He was suffering internal physical injury. He came back into his mortal body and immediately got hold of the Saints holy feet. “Oh Swami! My bones will suffer internal physical pain for the rest of my life. I thought that all this was false. Now I have decided that just as the government in this world capture and beat those who are guilty, likewise is Bhagwan’s government. Over here, one can become free through bribery, but none of these deceptions work in hell.

Swami! From now on, I shall not insult anyone. Please teach me the acts of righteousness.” Subsequently, the Saints gave him Vartman, a Kanthi around his neck, offered him worshiping accessories and explained to him the righteousness of a devotee. He then became a devotee.

There is only one solution to be saved from beatings of the Yamduts. Abide by the commands set by Bhagwan and become engaged in devotion to Bhagwan. Chant Prabhu’s name during all tasks.

Swaminarayan swaminarayan unche saade gaay l saambhline yamduto tene durthi laage pay ll

Bhagwan is the Saviour of souls from the Yamduts.

Mantra (102) Aum Shree Purna-Kaamay Namah

One whose every (‘purna’) wishes (‘Kaam’) are accomplished and One who is perfect (‘purna’)

Shatanand Swami is paying respectful obeisances to Shree Hari. “Oh Prabhu! You are ‘purnakaam’ (perfect). You are Purna Purshotam. You do not possess any imperfection.” Bhagwan is perfect. Bhagwan’s motives are also perfect. He is the Idol of Perfection Himself.

purna madah purna midam, purnaat purna mudachyate l purnasya purna maadaay, purna mevaa vashishyate ll

Bhagwan descends upon this Earth in order to fulfil the desires of His staunch devotees. Some devotees crave to feed Bhagwan. Some devotees wish to be the parents of Bhagwan. Others desire to associate with Him as a friend. In order to accomplish the wishes of all these devotees, Bhagwan arrives in this region of the universe.

Prabhu is perfect. Those entities that are perfect become content with affection. Some become pleased if they are given a worldly object and they begin praising, ‘Wow! You did very well. May your sons live a long life. May you lead a flourishing life.’ They will shower a flow of blessings. This is because they are imperfect. Those who are perfect do not become pleased through worldly objects. They become pleased through adore.

Bhagwan Shree Krushna firstly situated the Yadavs in the right place thinking that, ‘If they are committing sins in My presence, they will all cause black disaster in my presence. They will not let anyone live peacefully. They are insulting Saints and Brahmans and they will continue.’ Hence, He sent the Yadavs to His Abode in His presence.

Ramchandraji Bhagwan destroyed countless demons and established righteousness. Thereafter, He left. Swaminarayan Bhagwan also established righteousness on this earth, abolishing the demonic devils and prepared to unfold His lifetime Leelas. On the ninth day of the bright half of the month of Jeth VS 1886, He called a meeting with the Saints and devotees saying, “I want to tell you something. I am certain that none of you will like to hear it, yet it must be accepted. Dear devotees! I have completed what I had come to do for the souls who have become entangled from an infinite amount of eras. Nothing has been left incomplete. My Leelas have been fulfilled. The installations of the divine Idols have been performed after the construction of the Temples. Sacred Scriptures have been written. The creation of the two Acharyas has been established. Great Saints have also been prepared. Now you should all incessantly water the garden of Satsang in which the garden remains eternally verdant and tender.” Prabhu announced:-

have jaish hu dhaam maare re, maare shikh devi chhe tamaare re l raaji rahevu rovu nahi vaase re, kede karvo nahi kankaas re ll am kede marsho nahi tame re, ann muksho maa kahiyre amere l aatmahaat na karsho jan re, eh maanjo maaru vachan re ll

“Be understanding and bear patience. None shall come after Me by committing suicide. Do not cry and also do not quarrel. Stay within the commands of these elder Saints. Do not worry about anything. When you remember Me, I shall grant you with Darshan.” Just as a father gives advice to his son, Shreeji Maharaj gave advice to His devotees. “I am forever with you.”

Subsequently, Shreeji Maharaj told Gopalanand Swami, Muktanand Swami and other Sadgurus, “Oh My Dear Saints!”

satsangnaa sthambh chho tame, em dhaaryu chhe antare ame l maate dhiraj sau tame dharjo, satsangnu rakshan karjo ll

Shreeji Maharaj said, “Oh Saints! You are the foundations of My Satsang. Take care and have intense will, so that the flow of the River Ganga of devotion increases with the passage of time. So that the motivation, affection and faith forever flows and the beautiful reputation of the Swaminarayan flag flutters in the entire universe. Have courage and also give others courage. You have eternally remained in My command and continue this going forward.

I am not departing by leaving you. I am eternally residing within this Satsang. However, you will not be able to see Me as you are seeing Me at present. You will be able to see Me only through a divine form.” Hearing such words, everyone became confounded. They fell to the ground. They became as still as lifeless bodies and began to shiver. The assembly surrounded with a complete still atmosphere. Bhagwan Swaminarayan called upon the Goddess of the power of courage. “Reside within the hearts of all these devotees and make their minds tough and courageous in which they can bear the sorrow of My separation.”

The devotees gazed at Shreeji Maharaj without a blink. “Oh Prabhu! Whatever You like is right.” Saying this, they loudly chanted, ‘Swaminarayan, Swaminarayan, Swaminarayan.’ No one fell asleep all night. Their hearts struggled hopelessly. ‘Our Beloved will be a long distance away from us by tomorrow.’ Their hearts were painfully pining for Shree Hari. The sun rose and everyone gathered. Today, no one’s face was illuminated. Dada Khachar’s royal court had become abandoned. Their eyes were exploding with continuous tears of pain and loss. It was the tenth day. In the afternoon the clock ticked to exactly twelve o’clock and Bhagwan peacefully folded up His Leelas. Muktos from Akshardham arrived. They seated Shree Hari on a heavenly carrier and headed towards Akshardham. Thereafter, the Saints and devotees together, took the divine Body to the grounds of Laxmi-Vadi in Gadhda and performed the last ceremonial act of the fire. The intentions of Shreeji Maharaj having descended on this earth had been completed. He has established righteousness, spiritual knowledge, non-attachment and devotion perfectly. “Hence, Oh Maharaj, You are perfect. You have not left anything incomplete. I humbly bow down many times to the lotus-like feet of Purshotam Narayan Shree Swaminarayan Bhagwan."

MANTRA (102)
Shatanand Swami is paying respectful obeisances to Shree Hari. “Oh Prabhu! You are perfect. You are also ‘satyavadi’ (veracious).” Bhagwan does as He says. Bhagwan accomplishes the truth of His taken vows. He, who utters only the truth, is known to be veracious. Bhagwan states in the Vachanamrut that, ‘I swear in the name of Ramanand Swami that I am not uttering a lie.’ Why did He say such? Simply to bestow trust.

Bhagwan Swaminarayan takes an oath upon His Saints in order to emphasise the truth. Bhagwan is truthful. At this particular point, you may doubt that if Bhagwan is the Encourager of veraciousness, why did He lie during the Krushna Incarnation? When He ate the butter belonging to the Gopees, the Gopees asked, “Keshav, who has been eating the butter?” Krushna would clearly answer back, “Not me,” even though He had in fact consumed the butter? Bhagwan had not consumed the butter of the Gopees. He had consumed their affection. Bhagwan is not hungry for worldly objects. He is hungry for affection.

Once, in the city of Ayodhya, Ghanshyam stole His sister-in-law’s ring. His sister-in-law said, “Oh Ghanshyam! If You have taken the ring, return it back to me.” “I have certainly not taken the ring.” He had taken it and given it to the confectioner in exchange for sweets. Yet He claimed, “I have certainly not taken the ring.” He uttered a lie. However, do not raise doubt upon this act. It is certain that He had taken the ring, but this was only to bring the greedy confectioner into a state of consciousness, to make him forsake his greediness and to broaden His Leelas. Other than this, Bhagwan is forever truthful. By no means does He utter a lie.

Only truth is the tool for final liberation. Wherever truth lies, there is harmony, prosperity, success and fame. One should eternally serve truth. Only through truth, the earth is preserving everyone. Only through truth, the sun is heating. Through truth, the wind is blowing and the ocean is staying within its limits. Those who want to attain bliss, should forever serve truth. At an unexpected moment and sudden instance, the mountains of sorrow broke down in the lives of the veracious King Harischandra and King Nal. The clouds of obstruction impeded against each other, yet they did not forsake truth. Hence, they became worthy of Shree Hari’s compassion and in the end, they reached Prabhu’s Akshardham. Duryodhan served dishonesty; hence this led to his wicked deeds. King Yudishtir served honesty; therefore he attained victory in every aspect of life. This is the glory of honesty.

“I WILL NOT LET YOU GO.”

Shatanand Swami has given extraordinary glory in this Janmangal Stotra. He has sealed all the essences of the Satsangi Jeevan Scripture into these one hundred and eight mantras. Those who read this Janmangal narration gain the equal fruits of reading the five chapters of the Satsangi Jeevan Scripture. There are one hundred and eight beads within a rosary, , this Janmangal is a special and unique divine rosary. Bhagwan’s divine names flourish with limitless greatness. Prabhu is honest. He is the Form of truth. There is a saying: ‘In the end, victory of righteousness is attained.’ There is a beautiful narration relating to this. Please read with devotion.

King Satyadev was a devotee and follower of Shree Hari. His name was matching with his virtues (‘Satya’- Truth, ‘Dev’- Deity). He would protect the nation in the same manner as he would protect his son. According to law and honesty, he would give justice. He would give distress to anyone. There was only one aim in his life: ‘To never desert the Truth, despite the dire consequences’. He would perform the act of worshipping Bhagwan, as a daily routine and would wake in the early morning and begin recitation. The habit of a devotee of Bhagwan is to naturally wake up in the early hours
Once, he woke up early and was performing Mala. At that time, he witnessed a beautiful lady heading out of his royal palace. The King became astonished. Therefore, he immediately questioned, “Sister! Who are You?” “I am Laxmiji. I am requesting to depart from your home.” The King replied, “Fine. You may leave.” A while later, a handsome male departed from the palace. The King asked, “Who are You?” “I am the Deity of donation. Laxmiji has departed from here, so how will you be able to donate? I shall also depart with Laxmiji.” The King answered, “Fine. You may leave.” After a while, a third male departed from the palace. The King again asked, “Who are You?” “I am the Deity of moral conducts. If Laxmiji and the Deity of donation have taken leave, I shall go along with them.” The King said, “Fine. You may also leave.” Thereafter, a fourth male departed out. The King asked, “Who are You?” “I am the Deity of success. Laxmiji, the Deity of donation and the Deity of moral conducts has left; hence I shall also leave.” The King answered, “Fine. You may also take leave.”

Behind Him, a youthful, enlightened, beautiful male headed out towards the gate of the palace. The King asked, “Who are You?” “I am the Deity of truth. If Laxmiji, the Deity of donation, the Deity of moral conducts and the Deity of success have left, I shall also leave with them.” The King said, “I have never forsaken You. In my life, I have followed the path of honesty in every performance I carry out. I have not carried out a single deed with dishonesty. I have not carried out any immoral deeds or ever uttered a lie. I have never been a dishonest witness to anything or ever wrongly accused any individual. Furthermore, I have never gathered wealth with dishonesty and I have forever served with honesty. I have never disobeyed Parmatma’s single command. Therefore, how can You leave like this? I shall not let you go. If everything else leaves, let it leave, but I will not let go of truth.”

The King told the Deity of truth, “If you leave, every belonging of mine will leave.” The Deity of truth did not leave. He stayed. Laxmiji, the Deity of donation, the Deity of moral conducts and the Deity of success were waiting outside. The Deity of truth stayed; thus, Laxmiji and the other Deity’s, entered back into the royal palace. Wherever there is truth, there, everyone wished to reside in its company. Endure truth in your life. Truth, penance, compassion and purity are the four branches of righteousness. Those who possess all these four essences are fully righteous beings.

Wherever truth resides, there, Parmatma resides. The fruits of those who utter dishonesty become abolished. Shatanand Swami is saying, “Oh Prabhu! You are veracious.”

MANTRA (104)

AUM SHREE GUNA-GRAHINE NAMAH

One who acknowledges (‘grahi’) the virtues (‘gun’) of every entity in the manner of Dataatreya Bhagwan

Shatanand Swami is paying respectful obeisances to Shree Hari. “Oh Prabhu! You are the Acknowledger of virtues.” Shreeji Maharaj is training us. Those who want to develop in Satsang should learn to acknowledge the virtues in every entity. One should never perceive the bad qualities in any entity. If we acknowledge the good qualities, the virtues will survive within us. Moreover, those who acknowledge the negative qualities fall behind in Satsang. A modest individual sees faults in oneself and an immodest individual sees faults in others.

THE VESSEL OVERFLOWED FULLY.

Bhagwan Swaminarayan, once arrived to serve food to the Saints seated in a row. He had served all. He served all the food that was made. Muktanand Swami and Premanand Swami were left behind. The items of food were finished. The two Saints stopped and said, “Not a problem. Today, we will consume fruits.” Shreeji Maharaj answered, “That is not acceptable.” Shreeji Maharaj without a delay announced, “Oh Saints! No one should begin to eat. Present a spoonful each in Muktanand Swami’s and Premanand Swami’s vessels. They have been left behind.

Do not become generous-minded and pour half of the food. You must present a spoonful each in each of their vessels.” Both Saints walked around the row of Saints. All the Saints would present a spoonful in each of their vessels. The vessels of the Saints who were sat in the row, were half or a quarter full. However, Muktanand Swami’s and Premanand Swami’s vessels became overflown.

Shreeji Maharaj said, “Saints! In this manner, if we learn to gather small amount of virtues from every entity, our vessels will overflow. All humans possess at least one or two virtues. If one’s sight is divine and pure, virtues can be noticed. King Yudishtir’s sight was virtuous. Thus, he would perceive everyone as virtuous. On the other hand, Duryodhan’s sight was wicked. Thus, he would perceive everyone as flawed entities.”

Shreeji Maharaj would send Saints to beg for alms from door to door. They were not permitted to collect alms from one house only. They would consume the food collected from various homes. A honeybee gathers the taste from all flowers a little bit at a time. It would gather the taste in a way where the flowers do not become impaired and in a way where it does not become affected. In addition, if that same honeybee stings, it will sting so harshly that a wound will emerge on the body. However, if it rests on a flower, it would suck the taste with the same mouth and when that honeybee sits on dirty mud, it will gain taste from it. There is no taste in dirty mud, yet the honeybee discovers taste from it. It would gather all the taste and produce such sweet honey that even we say, ‘Oh! This honey is so sweet and tasteful.’ A honey-bee would even acknowledge the essence from dirty mud. Likewise, Bhagwan is saying, “You should learn to acknowledge virtues from every entity.” A crow would seize awful objects. One should perform in the same manner as a honeybee, but not as a crow.

One of the unique qualities that Bhagwan possesses is that He makes minute qualities meaningful. There was a Muslim ruler in the city of Junagadh. Everyone opposed saying, “We will not consent to the construction of a Temple in Junagadh.” Brahmanand Swami tried to explain but all the ministers declined. “We will not allow a Temple to be constructed.” However, one Muslim ruler agreed. “Construct the Temple unhesitatingly and merrily. I am present. I am giving consent.” He favoured the Temple and the Saints and everyone’s courage grew. The construction of the beautiful Temple was being prepared. Years went by and the Muslim ruler became ill. Shreeji Maharaj with accompanying Saints, came to take the Muslim ruler to Akshardham.

The Muslim ruler was drunk. For the reason of his unpleasant smell, Shreeji Maharaj covered His nose with a handkerchief. In one form, Bhagwan was residing within Gadhpur. There, He covered His nose with a handkerchief. At that instant, the devotees asked, “Oh Prabhu! Why have You covered Your nose with a handkerchief?” Shreeji Maharaj answered, “I went to collect a Muslim ruler. I have covered my nose with a handkerchief because of the unpleasant stench of the liquor he has drunk.” The Muslim ruler had not committed any good deeds. However, through the virtuous deeds of favouring the construction of the Temple, Shreeji Maharaj arrived to collect him to Akshardham. Otherwise, a liquor drinker is apt for the darkness of hell. However, Bhagwan believed the slight virtue to be great. Bhagwan is the Acknowledger of virtues in this manner. His nature is to acknowledge good qualities.

MANTRA (105) AUM SHREE GATASMAYAY NAMAH
To whom nothing is astounding and One who is naturally potent

Shatanand Swami is paying respectful obeisances to Shree Hari. “Oh Prabhu! You do not possess vanity. You are the Idol of divinity. No one is powerful enough to identify Your artistic skill and miracles. You have created a universe which puts all souls, animals and living entities into astonishment.”
A human is born to a human. An animal is born to an animal. He kept the constellation of the stars and planets above. He showers rain and moves the clouds. He would move the clouds above as if they are alive. Prabhu is miraculous. We become wonder-struck. ‘How does this happen?’ Just as we buy new clothes after our old clothes become worn out, when our mortal body becomes old and rattles, Prabhu grants us a new body. On one side, the drums and musical instruments are been played and on the other side, after an individual’s death, mournful tears are been wept.

Many scientists are attempting to get hold of a soul, yet witness Bhagwan’s artistic skills. The soul cannot be seen, but on the other hand, everything happens through it. Just as the wind cannot be viewed, life cannot be viewed. Prabhu is able to do as He wishes. We may think how does one go into deep trance? When someone experiences a sudden death, we become shocked that, ‘What happened all of a sudden? How can his soul be taken away? What are the attributes of the soul?’ Like this, we become stunned. However, for Bhagwan, this is not miraculous or astounding. All this is natural to Him.

A magician can produce money out of ordinary paper. He would fascinate others with many of his tricks. We become amazed. ‘How did he produce money out of ordinary paper?’ However, more surprisingly, think how Bhagwan puts life into the dead corporeal bodies in which the bodies begin to speak and play.

For Bhagwan, the creation of many millions of universes is typical. When an earthquake takes place, we become staggered. Although this earth is wide and heavy, how did Bhagwan cause it to shake? It is startling. We cannot even lift a mere rock and Shree Hari can lift the earth and shake it. These matters seem to be surprising and incredible to humankind, but for Bhagwan, this is not astonishing. It is natural.

He is One Himself, yet can form into many divine Forms. No mere being can measure His power. One certainly cannot measure Bhagwan’s power, but one cannot even measure the powers of the Saint’s, which are bestowed by Bhagwan’s glory. One indeed becomes stunned. When the deep ocean was bursting with water, Agatsya Muni drank the water in the palm of one hand. Whose supremacy was this? It was Bhagwan’s power. If Bhagwan desires, He can fundamentally revolutionise the minds of infinite souls. Bhagwan’s divine Form is phenomenal. Although performing such divine Leelas, He possesses no ego.

Mantra (106)

AUM SHREE SADACHAR-PRIYA-TARAY NAMAH

One who is very fond (‘priya’) of following the morally sound conducts (‘sadachar’)

Shatanand Swami is paying respectful obeisances to Shree Hari. “Oh Prabhu! Morally sound conducts are dear to You. You are fond of moral conducts. You cause Your disciples to follow the moral conducts. You are teaching them manners of purity.” The moral conducts that the Rushis and Munis have established are dear to Prabhu. Sadachar means ethical manners, ethical thinking. Those who obey the moral conducts experience eternal bliss in this life and the next.

The sacred Shikshapatri Scripture is enclosed with a compilation of moral conducts. How one should conduct oneself from birth to death, how one should conduct oneself from sunrise to sunset has been described clearly by Shreeji Maharaj. When one awakens in the morning, one should immediately remember Prabhu. He should then bathe and single-mindedly, with full consciousness perform worship. One should cook food with purity and then offer the food to Prabhu.

At the time of eating, one should take a vow of silence and recall Bhagwan in the mind, with every bite taken. One who consumes food in such ways, gains the fruits of a full fast. Thereafter, one should trade according to justice and fairness. Prabhu has taught such ways in which one should obey the moral conducts.
One shall remain pure through the body, speech and mind. One shall not waste food and take the amount of items needed to eat, but should not put to waste. To waste food and wash it down the gutter is also a sin. Hence, one should take only the amount of food needed. Prabhu has clearly taught such moral conducts in which His devotees shall obey to.

When purchasing fruit and vegetables from the market, one shall wash them with clean water and then make use of it in the house. One shall not even bathe within the water which contains tiny insects. The reason is that if those insects die, one gets the sin of killing them. One becomes impure rather than becoming pure from bathing and this builds their sins. If those minute insects stick to the skin, they die.

Furthermore, no matter what type of periods of adversity arise, one should not commit suicide. One shall not falsely accuse or accept bribes. One shall not insult or associate with company of the immoral. Shree Hari precisely clarified the definitions of the do’s and don’ts. One shall serve ones parents, Guru and the ill persons. One shall not take others belongings. One shall perceive every female in this universe to be one’s mother, sister and daughter. One shall perceive every male in this universe to be one’s father, brother and son. One shall by no means spoil ones inclinations.

Shree Hari has endured moral conducts in His life in an appropriate manner. Shreeji Maharaj has taught the moral conducts of control over the senses and the moral conducts of forgiveness in a proper way. Moral conducts are extremely dear to Prabhu.

MANTRA (107) AUM SHREE PUNYA-SHRavana-KIRTANaY NAMAH

One whom’s holy discourses and Kirtans are fruitful (‘punya’)

Shatanand Swami is paying respectful obeisances to Shree Hari. “Oh Prabhu! Your Kirtans and attention in holy discourses are fruitful acts.” The melodious singing of Prabhu’s virtues and Kirtans describing Prabhu’s virtues are fruitful acts. “The minds of those who listen to the discourses of Your Leelas become sanitised. Those who sing Your Kirtans become rescued from the worldly ocean.” Bhagwan Swaminarayan has widely expanded the art of singing. Prabhu dearly loves melodies. When Saints sing melodious Kirtans, Shreeji Maharaj would swing in joy.

The group of Saints would sing along with instruments.

When the Saints sing Kirtans along with instruments, Prabhu would gradually move forward towards the Saints.

When Saints sing Kirtans, Shreeji Maharaj would shift towards them. Prabhu very much admires Kirtans with the melody of instruments. Prabhu Swaminarayan has kept the singing in Scriptures lively in the Swaminarayan fellowship today. Bhagwan arrives in the Temple of the heart, through one’s ears. The impurities within Temples of the hearts of those who listen to the purifying Leelas of Parmatma, become abolished. Bhagwan resides within those purified hearts. The provision for the body is food and the provisions for the soul are holy discourses and melodious Kirtans.

Through listening to holy discourses, the heart becomes enlightened by the illumination of knowledge. Just as the dirt of clothes and the body becomes clean through soap, the pollution of ones senses becomes cleansed through listening to God-related holy discourses.

Shreeji Maharaj has stated in the Vachanamrut that, ‘when I was at a youthful age, I admired the following of five daily routines: to go to the temples for Darshan, to listen to holy discourses, to associate with Saints, to meditate upon Bhagwan’s divine Idols and to set out for pilgrimage.’ In order to demonstrate the greatness of holy discourses, He pointed out His nature when at a young age.
Some may doubt that, ‘if such is the greatness of holy discourses, then why are those people who listen to holy discourses daily, not influenced in any positive way?’ The answer to this is that they may be listening with the ears but are not listening reverently with full attention of the mind. If one listens with the mind and if they do not have motivation, greatness and liking of the holy discourses, they are listening through one ear and taking it out from the other. Hence, it does not influence them and no positive differences are made in their life and nature. From the nine types of devotion, listening to holy Scriptures and talks in praise of Bhagwan, is considered to be the utmost highest type of devotion.

Devotion of singing Kirtans is very much liked by Shreeji Maharaj. Through singing Bhagwan’s Kirtans, illusion run far away and the mind becomes fixed in Bhagwan, through which the soul attains liberation. It is stated in the Puranas:

kalau sankirtan keshavam, sankirtya narayan naam maatram l
vimukt dukhaa sukhino bhavanti ll

In this age of Kaliyug, there is no other solution to liberation other than Kirtans of Shree Hari. If you turn the letters around of kee-rt-an, it becomes na-rt-kee. Na-rt-kee means, one who makes one dance in illusion. Through singing Kirtans, the mind which is dancing in illusion begins to dance in Bhagwan. Hence, one should ceaselessly sing Kirtans. Without singing a kirtan and a dhun and concludes the holy discourse, the holy discourse is known to be incomplete. Kirtans are a large ship for one to be rescued from this age of Kaliyug.

MANTRA (108) AUM SHREE SARVA-MANGALA-SADRUP-NANA-GUNA-VICHESTITAY NAMAH
One’s whose divine Leelas opens the path of liberation for all Shatanand Swami is paying respectful obeisances to Shree Hari. “Oh Prabhu! Your virtues are propitious.” Bhagwan’s speech, His style of walking, His smile and His Leelas are auspicious. He is the divine form of all auspiciousness. Those who meditate upon Him and sing His melodious Kirtans become auspicious themselves. Bhagwan’s speech brings out this auspiciousness.

vaani mangal rupini ch hasitam,yasyaasti vai angalam, netre mangal dech dorvilasitam,nrunaam param mangalam l vaktram mangal kuch paad chalitam,yasyaasti vai mangalam, sau’yam mangal murti raasu jagato,nityam kriyaan mangalam ll

Prabhu’s form is eternally unchanged. A human being’s form alters. A baby does not possess any teeth. When he reaches a youthful stage, his teeth grow. When he becomes aged, his teeth fall out and his mouth becomes like a small recess in the wall. The individual is the same, but many alterations are made. Alterations of the appearance, the body and the power have occurred. There are two kinds of appearances: false appearance and true appearance. The affection increased through appearance does not endure for long. When leprosy marks appear on the mortal body and when the body becomes diseased, the increased affection that one once had disintegrates.

The illusive appearance is a false appearance. Those forms which fundamentally change are known as false appearances. Shreeji Maharaj is saying that the affection increased through virtues, lasts a lot longer. The affection increased towards the body through self-interest and materialism, on the other hand, does not last forever. Any material appearances of the world are not eternal. Bhagwan’s divine Form is eternal. He is the treasure of all beauty. He is the divine form of truth. No alterations are made of His divine Form.

Prabhu’s divine Form does in fact change. He does in fact appear in a form which is particularly necessary in a specific situation. However, His divine Form remains everlastingly youthful. On no account does it aged. Bhagwan’s virtues are worthy to be sung.

Those who sing Bhagwan’s virtues experience bliss. Prabhu’s virtues are everlasting. The virtues of a mere human come and go. At times, it would possess Satvogun, or Rajogun. At other times, it would possess Tamogun. Bhagwan possesses Satvogun. He is superior to these three qualities. He is the ocean of good qualities. An ocean does not become desiccated and the amount of water within it cannot be measured. One cannot quantify Prabhu’s qualities. All the types of qualities are possessed within Prabhu, yet Bhagwan is known to also be without qualities. The reason is that Bhagwan does not possess ILLUSIVE qualities; however, all the virtues He possesses are DIVINE. He makes the lives of those who sing His virtues auspicious. Eras upon eras surpassed, yet holy discourses of Prabhu have remained fresh and full of energy. They seem to be new and clean. They are eternal, hence, they feel new.

At present, we are singing the virtues that the Rushis and Munis were singing in Satyug. The hearing of Bhagwan’s virtues is eternal and unfathomable. Prabhu’s nature is divine. There is no end to Shree Hari’s Leelas.

THE GREATNESS OF THE JANMANGAL. ITYE TATPARAM STOTRA, JANAMANGAL SANGNITAM I

| 23 | yah patheten pathitam, bhavedhai sarva mangalam |
| 24 | yah pathechru nyyad bhaktya, trikaalam shriav yech vaa |
| 25 | etattsyay t u papani, nashyeyuh kil sarvashah |
| 26 | etatsanve mananam, purusharth chatushtaye |
| 27 | durlabhah naasti kimapi, hari krushna praasadatah |

As a conclusion, Shatanand Swami is saying, “Those who chant this Janmangal Stotra, those who recite the one hundred and eight greatly divine mantras achieve the equivalent amount of fruits of chanting the Sarvamangal Stotra.” The Sarvamangal Stotra contains one-thousand sacred names of Shree Hari and the Janmangal Stotra contains one hundred and eight sacred names of Shree Hari.

The sins of those who listen to or recite the Janmangal in the morning, afternoon and evening are burnt to ashes (paapaani nashyett). ‘Chatushta ye’, meaning those who chant this Janmangal attain the four pursuits of a man’s life: (1) Dharma (moral emancipation), (2) Arth (worldly prosperity), (3) Kaam (fulfilment of worldly desires) and (4) Moksh (final liberation). He does not have to run after the efforts of achievement. He attains them naturally. Wealth lasts in conditions where there is appropriateness. Wherever righteousness is settled, there is justice. Wherever Bhagwan resides, there is everything.

If a lake in a jungle is full to the brim, then birds, animals, humans and many others will arrive. Frogs, fishes and alligators settle in the lake. They would wander and roam and experience harmony. The lake does not go to call anyone that, ‘Come to me!’ Everyone approaches it naturally. Likewise, those who have moral sound conducts, achieve righteousness, devotion and other high-quality virtues. They achieve truth, righteousness, justice, peace, fulfilment and other superior qualities. Bhagwan grants whatever is needed at any time.

MORE THAN LUCK, PRABHU’S DIVINE NAME IS POTENT.

| 26 | bhoot pret pishchananam, dakini brahm rakshasaam |
| 27 | yogini naam tatha bal, grahadi naamu padravah |
| 28 | abhicharo ripu kruto, rog shvaanyo pyu padravah |
| 29 | ayuta varta nadasya, nashya tyeva na sanshayah |
| 30 | dasha vrutya prati din, masyaa bhishtam sukham havet |
| 31 | gruhi bhi styagii bhishchaapi, pathaneeyamidam tatah |
Those who recite the Janmangal are not distressed by evil spirits. Their confusion and chaos become eliminated. If a wicked person performs black magic upon someone and that person then chants the Janmangal ten thousands times, he goes through harmony. This Janmangal liberates the ill and its illnesses.

If one is destined to lie restlessly on a bed for a length of six months and if he recites this Janmangal daily with enthusiasm and affection, he becomes liberated from the restlessness and illness in a period of two mere days. More than luck, Prabhu’s divine name is potent.

‘Gruhi bhi styagi’, meaning whether he is a householder or a renunciate, he should indeed recite this Janmangal ten times on a daily basis. Narrating this Janmangal discourse is bestowing us with joy. All the essences that Shatanand Swami has taken out from the deep surface, we have tried to sing to the best of our knowledge. Shatanand Swami can understand the full meaning of these one hundred and eight divine mantras.

These Janmangal mantras have been emerged from Shreeji Maharaj’s divine Leelas. Those who have attained the state of realisation of Swaminarayan Bhagwan can explain these mantras. Shatanand Swami has attained the full state of realisation of Swaminarayan Bhagwan. Shatanand Swami has resided with Bhagwan during His presence. Hence, his ecstasy and experience is amazing. Only Shatanand Swami is familiar with the extraordinary greatness of these mantras.

Through Bhagwan’s compassion and Saint’s blessings, whatever has been understood has been presented before you. If any mistakes are made in this Janmangal explanation, if the mantras and the compounds of the explanations are not fully understood, if any faults come into view in the level of understanding, then may Swaminarayan Bhagwan forgive. Any of these essence(s) which are considered to be fine are the fruits of Bhagwan’s compassion.

We shall all take a vow from today onwards that we should undoubtedly recite the Janmangal ten times a day. For our liberation, we should certainly recite the Janmangal with understanding of its prominence.

Shreeji Maharaj will become pleased upon those devotees who read the meaning of this Janmangal, who organise a holy discourse of this Janmangal narration and those who listen to it. In the ending stage, He bestows them with a supreme position.
